Sympathy also to Bill Steinert and his family on the death of his mother, Helen Steinert, to Ronald Fowler and his family on the death of his uncle, Sam Finocchio and to Timothy Santos and his family on the death of his son, Timothy Santos, Jr. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Financial Stewardship

Jesus tells the crowd that only those who renounce all of their possessions can be His disciples. Is He truly asking us to give up everything? Perhaps instead He is trying to help us see that everything we think we own is really a gift from God. Good stewards know that and strive to use those gifts accountably.

Financial Stewardship for August 31 & Sept. 1:

Building Fund	$ 25,119.00
Offertory	$ 10,371.00
Vredenburgh	$ 25.00

Prayer cards will be made available for use during the recitation and for use at home in continuing this devotion.

Banners

The new banners in the foyer of our church represent the four pillars of Stewardship: Formation, Prayer, Service and Hospitality. Prior to the beginning of the new school year, many cleaning and repair projects were done requiring many helping hands. A children's playhouse, on the preschool/elementary playground, was in sad shape. A parishioner, one of the school dads, volunteered to use his skills to rebuild the playhouse rather than have it repaired.

Casting Lots for the Seamless Garment (John 19:23-24)

Pope to parents: Teach your children to respect, defend human life

By Cindy Wooden Catholic News Service (reprint) from One Voice, Aug. 16, 2013)

VATICAN CITY (CNS) - Respect for human life from conception until natural death is something children must be taught, not mainly with words, but by the example of their parents, Pope Francis said. "Parents are called to pass on to their children the awareness that life must always be defended," Pope Francis wrote in a message to people joining in the Brazilian Catholic Church's celebration of Family Week, which began August 11.

The pope returned to his condemnation of the "throwaway culture," something he spoke against several times during his July 22-28 visit to Brazil. He had said that modern cultures tend to treat even human lives as disposable, pointing to the way people, societies and even governments tend to treat both the young and the old.

In his message for Family Week, he said parents have a responsibility to fight that disposable culture by teaching their children that human life, "from the womb," is a gift from God. New life ensures the future of humanity, he said, while older people, especially grandparents, "are the living memory of a people and transmit the wisdom of life."

The pope also charged married Catholic couples and their children with the task of recognizing they must be "the most convincing heralds" of the beauty and grace of Christian marriage.

For more information on the Seamless Garment Ministry, please contact Tom & Elsbeth Germanson at 205.565.3456.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the members of Prince of Peace, are a community of Christ who gather together in Eucharist to find unity, renewal, and empowerment to carry on the work of Jesus. We celebrate in the diversity of our parish community. Aware of our presence and responsibility in Birmingham, we recognize our membership in our Diocese and in the Catholic Church of the world.

In our ministry of bringing Jesus into the life of the community, we are committed to:

Grow spiritually in prayer which is integrated with our active daily lives;

Promote the education of the adults and youth among us;

Contribute our individual resources, talents, and gifts toward the enrichment of our parish life;

Witness the gospel by reaching out to others in living Christian service with special concern for young families, the elderly, the poor and the unchurched;

Welcome the new members of our parish;

Rejoicing in this community, we celebrate as a family united in the body of Christ through active liturgical worship.

Membership at Prince of Peace is usually determined by:

  - Attending Mass
  - Being part of on-going Catholic formation
  - Sharing of time, talent and treasure (use of weekly financial envelopes).
  - Participating in a parish ministry, activity, program or organization. (Parish Council, P.T.O., parish committee, Sunday school educator, chaperone, coach, etc.)
