Senior Pastor Search Process — Good News!

Thank you for your patience and continued prayers as the search process has moved forward. Dr. Josh Whitfield has agreed to the financial package for senior pastor offered by the Finance Committee and our request for him to preach again on Sunday, May 6th, in both morning worship services. Also, on that Sunday afternoon, we will have a 'meet and greet' from 3 to 5 P.M. which will give you the opportunity to stop by and visit with Pastor Josh and his family. Then, on the following Wednesday, May 9th, we will have a called Business Meeting to vote on Pastor Josh as our Senior Pastor. Please continue to pray and trust God for leadership and guidance in this process.

Contemporary Worship Service News

We would like to give a special welcome to Mr. Michael Hood who will be serving for the next 6 or 8 weeks as our Contemporary Worship Leader. Michael is a gifted, talented and passionate musician and minister of the Word and has a tremendous heart for the Lord. He has worked with Emerge Ministries, our Contemporary Service and has served in many other capacities through the years. He will be spending more time in Winston-Salem toward the end of May working in an internship related to the masters degree he is pursuing at Wake Forest University.

We also wish to express our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Tyler Mooring for his meaningful service to the Lord at Stoney Creek—most recently serving as our Contemporary Worship Leader. Tyler has also worked with Emerge and has served in many other capacities through the years. Tyler is striving to listen to the Lord and follow God's will for his life. Continue to pray for him and his future endeavors as he continues to serve our mighty God.

We also want to share our overwhelming thanks to all our musicians and techs who serve so graciously in our Contemporary Worship Service. This includes our frontline singers, our band members, our sound, lighting, video and computer techs and all our support members. Each of you are a tremendous asset to our church and you do so much to help lead us each and every week to the throne of God. Thank you for your selfless service to the Lord!

Lunch at NC Seafood Restaurant (or Farmer's Market Restaurant) at the NC Farmer's Market in Raleigh and the 2018 "Got to be NC Festival" at the State Fairgrounds! — Friday, May 18 @ 10:30 am got to be NC FESTIVAL

Bring your appetite and curiosity as we head to our state's capital just in time to enjoy a delicious lunch at the State Farmer's Market. You can choose to eat at the "NC Seafood Restaurant" or enjoy some great southern cooking at the "Farmer's Market Restaurant." Both restaurants are near each other at the State Farmer's Market. After a great lunch, we will head directly to the NC fairgrounds—not for the State Fair—but for something on a slightly smaller scale with less walking—the 2018 "Got to be NC Festival." This annual event is sort of like a "mini" State Fair. It is an exciting festival highlighting all the great things from North Carolina. You can enjoy live music, food, animal and agricultural displays, antique tractors, and much, much more. Free events include—but are not limited to—the concerts on the outdoor stage, antique tractor and farm equipment parade, commercial exhibits in the Graham Building, racing pigs, baby pigs being born at the pig birthing center, free grandstand shows (such as bulldozer demonstrations and aerial drone demonstrations), a craft fair, a giant sand sculpture being created before your eyes, antique farm equipment, K9 Unit demonstrations, antique tractor pulls, rabbit agility shows and more. For a small fee, you can even take a ride on the "State Fair Flyer" (i.e. a chairlift built over the fairgrounds). There will even be a few carnival rides, pony rides and games for those of you who are more adventurous. Most of the festival is free with a few exceptions such as $3 admission charge to the Home Grown Fare Expo (i.e. the Food Expo) where North Carolina food companies will be sharing samples and selling some of the most delightful flavors North Carolina has to offer. There is also a cost for the rides, games and midway food. But you can easily enjoy an afternoon of family-style fun without ever spending a dime! If you are a "looker" instead of an "explorer," you can find a bench and sit back and watch everyone walking by. Whichever you are, we hope you will join your friends for a great day of down-home celebration NC-style!

Additional Upcoming Primetimer Events

June 8—Buffet Lunch & Sightseeing Cruise on NC's largest cruise vessel
July 27—Spaghetti Supper & Guest Speaker from FWB Children's Home
August 23—Dixie Queen Seafood and Simply Natural Creamery
