ACKERMANVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

From the Pastor's Desk ~

I found this poem in a devotional book written by Larry Stookey called This Day, A Wesleyan Way of Prayer. I was looking for a Christmas something and this one touched my heart. I decided to share it with you.

Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown, when Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home there was no room for Thy holy nativity.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus;
there is room in my heart for Thee.

Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
proclaiming Thy royal decree;
But in lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
and in great humility.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus.
there is room in my heart for Thee.

The foxes found rest and birds their nests
in the shade of the forest tree;
but Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
in the deserts of Galilee.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus.
There is room in my heart for Thee.

Thou cam'st, O Lord with the living word that should set Thy people free;
but with mocking scorn and with crown of thorn
they bore Thee to Calvary.

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus.
There is room in my heart for Thee.

When heaven's arches shall ring and her choir shall sing
at Thy coming in victory,
let Thy voice call me home, saying;
"Yet there is room. There is room at My side for thee!"
and my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
when Thou comest and callest for me.

Emily E.S. Elliot, 1839-1921

May this touch your hearts and lead you into the New Year with a yearning for Jesus in your own life.

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Alice Ann

Sponsoring Flowers and Bulletins

2016 Flower and Bulletin sponsorship charts are now in the narthex. Sponsoring altar flowers is a simple way to glorify God and beautify the altar. They can be placed in honor of someone, in memory of someone, in celebration of a birthday, anniversary, or other milestone, or just to give thanks for God's blessings. Your sponsorship and dedication will be printed in the bulletin for that Sunday. The same goes for sponsoring bulletins.

The cost for sponsoring altar flowers is $40 (quoted recently by Albanese Florist) and the cost for sponsoring bulletins is $10. Please consider signing up. First, write your name and dedication on the chart. Second, if sponsoring flowers, call Albanese Florist (610-588-0441) or J.C. Bloom Designs (610-588-3855) and place an order with them under the Ackermanville UMC account. Third, place the cost of flowers (or bulletins) in the offering plate on Sunday in a separate envelope, designating that it is for the cost of the flowers or bulletins. Thank you.

meetings this week in your churches and in your districts. Consider attending the Conference-wide prayer meeting at Lima UMC, 209 N. Middletown Road in Lima, PA on Wednesday, January 11 at 7 pm. Nothing happens apart from prayer.

Pray that God will move in a mighty way and that we, as a denomination, may remain one in Christ Jesus.

Joining you in prayer,
Bishop Peggy Johnson

Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago. One day I saw a sign that read, "Heaven's Grocery Store." As I got a little closer the door came open wide, and when I came to myself, I was standing inside.

I saw a host of angels, they were standing everywhere. One handed me a basket and said, "My child, shop with care." Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store; and all you couldn't carry, you could come back for more the next day.

First I got some Patience, Love was in the same row. Further down was Understanding. You need that everywhere you go. I got a box of Wisdom. A bag or two of Faith. I just couldn't miss the Holy Spirit, for He was all over the place. I stopped to get some Strength and Courage to help me run the race. By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered I needed some Grace. I didn't forget Salvation - for Salvation that was free. So I tried to get enough of that to save both you and me.

Then I started to the counter to pay my grocery bill, for I thought I had everything to do my Master's WILL. When I went up the aisle I saw Prayer and I just had to put that in for I knew when I stepped outside; I would run right into sin.

Peace and Joy were plentiful. They were on the last shelf. Songs of Praises were hanging near, so I just helped myself. Then I said to an angel "Now how much do I owe? He just smiled and said, "Just take them everywhere you go."

Again I smiled at him and said, "How much do I really owe?" He smiled again and said, "My child, Jesus paid your bill a long time ago."

10 fascinating facts about John Wesley and United Methodism

1. John Wesley wrote one of the all-time bestselling medical texts.

Wesley was deeply convicted that God is concerned about our earthly life as well as our heavenly one. To that end, he wrote a medical text for the everyday person titled Primitive Physick. The book detailed the current knowledge about home remedies and went through 32 editions, making it one of the most widely read books in England. Many of Wesley's cures and tips on healthy living remain widely accepted.

2. John Wesley coined the term "agree to disagree."

Over the years, Wesley had serious theological differences with another popular pastor named George Whitefield. Though they both argued passionately, Wesley reflected on these differences in a memorial sermon for Whitefield by saying: "There are many doctrines of a less essential nature. ... In these, we may think and let think; we may agree to disagree! But, meantime, let us hold fast the essentials. ..." This appears to be the first recorded use of the term. It was a hallmark of Wesley's way of holding to his convictions while remaining in connection with those with whom he disagreed.

3. John Wesley rode far enough on horseback to circle the earth 10 times.

Wesley rode 250,000 miles! He was convinced that it was important for him personally to spread the gospel through relationships and continue to grow closer to God in those relationships.

4. Wesley had serious doubts about his faith.

Questioning one's faith should not be disparaged. Doubts are essential to making any belief system one's own. They do not mean that one will let it go. In fact, even as Wesley struggled with deep doubts about faith, he followed the wise instruction of a mentor who told him to "preach faith till you have it; and then, because you have it, you will preach faith." Even as we struggle, we can maintain our hold on the truths we question until we can settle all of our doubts.

5. "Methodist" was originally a derogatory term.

Though the origins of the term "methodist" are in dispute, it is clear that it was originally used by outsiders to mock John Wesley and his early societies because of their dedication to following a method for growing closer to God. They ended up accepting the term, considering it a positive descriptor of their movement. Way to own it, Methodists!

6. Wesley counseled people to "eat a little less than you desire."

Staying slim was far from Wesley's goal (1), though he did weigh in around 128 pounds. This was not the result of dieting, but rather of a practice to ensure that people were not ruled by their natural desires, but exercising control over them.

7. Wesley never intended to split from the Church of England.

However, when the revolution happened in the American colonies, most of the Anglican priests returned home. Faced with the fact that none of the Methodists in the colonies could receive the sacraments, Wesley ordained ministers whom he sent to do the same in America (he was practical even when it caused problems). That act was the beginning of the separation that formed the Methodist Church (2) in America. The Methodist Church in England did not officially form until after Wesley's death.

8. Wesley never said this famous quote attributed to him.

It has been on the back of more than one United Methodist youth camp T-shirt: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, as long as ever you can." Though the quote is often attributed to John Wesley and is consistent with his perspective on life, many historians have confirmed there is no record of Wesley ever saying that.

9. Wesley believed you could not be a Christian on your own.

He said that we needed to be involved in "social holiness." Though some often think this term is synonymous with "social justice," its meaning is quite different. Wesley believed we could only grow as Christians in community. In his preface to the 1739 hymnal, he was adamant that "the gospel of Christ knows of no religion but social; no holiness but social holiness."

10. Methodism grew from four to 132,000 members in Wesley's lifetime.

The beginning of Methodism (3) was a group of four who called themselves the "holy club" at Oxford. When Wesley died in 1791, he left behind a movement with 72,000 members in the British Isles and 60,000 in America.

Picture This😊

The last pictorial Ackermanville UMC Church Directory is dated 2007! It's been a while! We would like to have photos taken in early Spring for a new pictorial directory. Kay Nell has kindly agreed to be our pictorial directory coordinator. You will hear from her soon with regards to setting up photographer appointments, and other pertinent information. Thank you."

Campbell's "Labels for Education" are being phased out. They will probably no longer accept these starting August 1, 2017. The labels you gave to the church have been sent to McCurdy School/Ministries in New Mexico. McCurdy was started by the United Brethren, and became an EUB mission and school, and is now, of course, United Methodist. Please continue to bring in Campbell's soup "Labels for Education", and as the August deadline gets closer, they will also be sent to McCurdy.

We will continue to collect "BOX TOPS for Education". This has NOT been discontinued, so keep cutting them out and bringing them in. Thank You!
