

Larry Downs

Larry Downs and his wife Elaine have 6 grown children, 13 grandchildren and a great grand son between them. They are members of FCC Homosassa Springs where Larry participates in the delivering Sunday Worship Meditations and conducts some of the Sunday evening services. Up north, he has been an active Christian layman for over 40 years; serving as a council member and chairing numerous committees. Larry, a Marine Corps veteran, is Professor Emeritus, Marketing, from Nichols College in Dudley, MA where he taught for over 30 years. Prior to that Larry spent over 25 years in marketing in the New York City and Boston areas; he was Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer of American Optical Laboratories, then a subsidiary the FORTUNE 100 firm, the Warner Lambert Company, Morris Plains, NJ. His favorite bible verse is Habakkuk 2:3, “The vision is waiting for the time set when it is to be carried out. It longs for fulfillment and cannot fail to come true. If it seems slow, just wait for it because it will certainly happen and not be late.”
