

STEVE NEWLAND

Steve serves as Senior Minister at Legacy Christian Church in Lakeland, FL, where he has served since January 2012. Other portions of his 17 years in ministry have been spent in Greencastle, IN, Springfield, MO and Mound Valley, KS.

Steve and his wife, Lacy, have been married since 1999. Both were recipients of Alexander Christian Foundation scholarships from their home states (Missouri and Indiana), and understand the importance and the value of Christian education and ministerial training. They have two children, Eddie (13) and Brianna (12). Steve is currently working toward his Doctor of Ministry degree through Southeastern University. He earned a Master of Arts in Global Leadership through Fuller Theological Seminary. His undergraduate degrees are from Ozark Christian College in Joplin (Bachelor of Theology in Missions, and a Bachelor of Biblical Literature). Steve and Lacy also attended Milligan College for a couple years before transferring to OCC.
