

LIZ LEROY

After completion of the architecture program at the University of Washington, Liz worked at Bassetti Architects in Seattle, Washington where she focused on school pre-design processes with school administrators and construction administration. After living for a short time in Annapolis, Maryland, Liz moved back to Seattle and started Alliance Construction Management to focus on public and private school planning and construction.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Architecture

University of Washington - Seattle, Washington

QUALIFICATIONS

- Licensed Architect, Washington State Architecture Registration # 9152
- Member of American Institute of Architects
- Consultant to various other school districts to provide recommendations addressing complicated schedule balancing during construction while school is fully occupied.
- Minority and Women Owned Business #W2F3520768

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- Architect training specializing in schools combined with over 8 years of owner's representative experience.
- Excellent organization and communication skills for public works projects- concentrating on schools
- Extensive experience with cost saving analysis and budgeting, value engineering and managing capital projects
- Extensive experience with public presentations and board presentations
- Extensive experience in budgeting and budget summaries

ALLIANCE

- Environmental design and LEED project management experience
- Focus on collaborative project management, communication and merging our company with our clients vision
- Securing energy efficiency grants from Puget Sound Energy
- Coordinating easements agreements, county conditional use applications and consultant coordination
- Fluent in AutoCAD, Microsoft Word, Excel, Publisher and PowerPoint
- Fluent in construction scheduling software including Microsoft Project, FastTrack and ProLog

PROJECT AWARDS

2008 International Design Awards (IDA) – Third Place Institutional Design
Wilson High School - Tacoma, WA

2008 Citation of Excellence, Learning by Design (National Award)
Gray Middle School - Tacoma, WA

2009 Merit Award, AIA Washington Council for Excellence in Public Architecture
Gray Middle School - Tacoma, WA

2009 Polished Apple Award, Council of Education Facilities Planners International (CEFPI)

2009 AIA Southwest Washington Design Award, Honor Award
Gray Middle School - Tacoma, WA