"We are very happy here but the first two months for people are hard...sometimes one full year. The problem for my family is learning English and the different culture."

— Shelan Saeed

Both Shelan and Daniel say that the struggles of adapting to a new life and new language exceed the 90 days of assistance available from social service agencies. Karen Rieley of Lutheran Social Services says she recognizes the challenges these families face.

Three charities work in tandem to help refugees through the process — World Relief, Catholic Charities and Lutheran Social Services. Katie Sullivan of World Relief says they partner together to get the job done. "We have the same goal, to help them become self-sufficient."

Sullivan shared one way in which all three charities seek to bridge the gap between 90 days of services and a lifetime as an American: by connecting refugees and local families. "The most beneficial way locals can help is working individually as friendship partners," she says. "Once a week, visit, check in, help in the home, tutor English, just be a friend."

Daniel praises the Harmon family who helped upon his arrival years ago. "When it was cold," he says, "we were so happy they brought us blankets — and their son and daughter." He shared that in his culture to see someone in your home feels like genuine care.

"People, they don't want money," Shelan says about helping refugees. "If you give money, it's gone tomorrow. For the new people, they need to learn English, and I wish American people would be mindful and not speak so fast. But to really help, we need to get an education — we want to find a job."

FIRST-RATE BIRDING ON THE FIRST COAST

HISTORIC ARCHITECTURE, uncrowded beaches, and broad marsh views await you on Amelia Island, and what better place to start than Fort Clinch State Park. Among Florida's first state parks, Fort Clinch remains a gem in the state park system and is the Great Florida Birding and Wildlife Trail's northernmost gateway site. Bird the maritime hammock along the edges of the canopied road leading into the park for warblers, wrens and migrating songbirds, particularly in spring and fall. Scan the expanses of coastal salt marsh for wrens, rails, wading birds, pelicans, ducks and raptors. The park's pier is a good site to watch for seabirds, including gannets and Purple Sandpipers in winter. Nearby Egans Creek Greenway offers excellent opportunities to spot egrets, Ospreys, and Roseate Spoonbills in the brackish wetlands bordering the creek. Check the stands of large trees at either entrance to the Greenway for warblers. For something off the beaten path, bird by kayak the Bells River and Little Tiger Island marshes with Amelia Island Kayak for early morning and sunset views of large numbers of Roseate Spoonbills, Black-bellied Plovers, Greater Yellowlegs and other shorebirds. Amelia Island State Park's catwalk and fishing pier along the Nassau Sound Bridge are a good bet at low tide for migratory shorebirds, Piping Plovers, and Gull-billed Terns. Beginning birders as well as experts will find something to excite them at The Nature Center at Omni Amelia Island Plantation. The rookery, with both Black-crowned and Yellow-crowned Night Herons, is a favorite, as are Painted Buntings in the maritime hammocks. AmeliaNature.com

ACCOUNT STATUS
Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement late payment interest of no more than 18% annually. Rates will vary based on state regulations. Interest will be calculated based upon daily balances and will be applicable for each day that a delinquent balance is outstanding. This charge will apply to all balances that are delinquent through such time that payment in full is received at AT&T. The late payment interest will be billed on a monthly basis. Accounts billed outside the US will not be charged LPI.

Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement a $25 service fee for restoration of service where delinquency has caused an interruption. This fee will be applicable to each account that is being restored and will be included on your monthly billing statement.

Some products require electronic billing as their official bill media. When electronic billing is the official bill media, an informational statement may be sent containing some of the same information as the electronic bill. The informational statement is not your bill. However, if you choose to mail your payment instead of paying electronically, the informational statement has a tear-off that can be used to submit your payment.

Problem

Assistance w/ Cam @ Bretts Waterway

Solution

No lights on DSL modem.
Broken latch on outdoor box.
Need cam on internet.
Replaced latch on box. Replaced camera. Replaced network run twice while troubleshooting remote issues. Called AT&T and had them set IP statically. Cam works fine onsite but times out remotely. Called AT&T again and confirmed slow upload speed for cam may not be acceptable. Emailed Susan Hurley with all connection and setup info.

DISCONNECTION NOTICE 548240

Account Number: 904-277-7646 001

Dear AT&T Customer:

Our records show that your AT&T account is past due in the amount of $117.11.

Failure to pay the past due charges, plus any current charges that have now become past due, by November 11, 2014 may result in interruption of your AT&T service and any other services associated with your billing telephone number. These services may include, but are not limited to services such as internet, wireless, directory advertising, voicemail, maintenance plans, or entertainment service.

Non-payment of any 900 and some third party service provider charges, included in the past due amount, will not result in interruption of local service, but may result in referral to a collection agency.

If your local telephone service is interrupted for non-payment, a restoration of service charge may apply. If payment is not received your service will be disconnected. If your service is disconnected, new service orders will be required, service installation intervals may apply and additional reconnection charges may be requested.

This may be the only written notification or contact provided. If a payment is dishonored, no further notice may be given before discontinuing service.

You may pay your past due balance with a credit card or automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account by contacting AT&T at 1-800-924-1743, or online at www.att.com. If you wish to discuss this notice, please contact us at the number above.

We value you as a customer and hope that you can help us avoid this action by making your payment today. If you have already sent in your payment, we thank you and you may disregard this notice.

Sincerely,

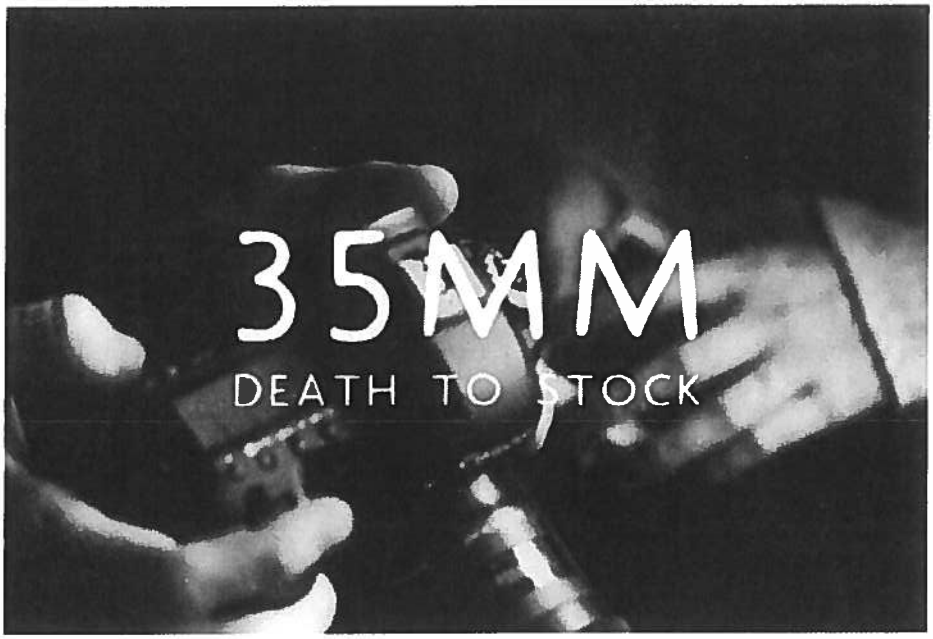
Welcome 35mm, a Font for adding a touch of hand-made to your work.



Teaming up with Tyler Thorney of Jackrabbit Creative, we wanted to create a font that was easily usable and flexible, but with a hand crafted feel.

The font is reminiscent of the typefaces that were used on old Rolleiflex cameras of the 1930s, and inspired by the history of 35mm film.

10. AMI 1594 Rev 1 - TaxSlayer Bowl TV Spot Vendor

    1. This is the $50 hard cost from Comcast that I informed you about on 12/23 along with the costs to edit and traffic the spot. This project and the one above are invoiced together. Total invoice is for $400.

Also, attached is the estimate for the upcoming Collaborate Meetings Magazine ad, which totals $159.38.

We are revising one of the brand ads to include the "Like no other place in Florida, or the South" line. We are doing this one as pro-bono, so you will not be charged. :)

Please review carefully and let me know if these are approved as-is, or if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Kristen

Request submitted. We should have a draft for you to review tomorrow afternoon sometime.

The estimated costs to revise this ad is about $750. I will send you an estimate as soon as possible.

Also, I just received the billing for the original Aficionauto ad project, and we came in 8.5 hours over budget. I reviewed with Melissa and she says there were additional rounds of changes that we're originally anticipated, which I believe you and I briefly discussed earlier. Would you be ok if we invoiced for 3.5 hours above estimate? Cedar has agreed to give 5 hours as pro-bono.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Subject: AMI NYT Ad Estimates

Hi Amy,

Attached for your review are the estimates for the two New York Times ads that are due Friday. Please note that the b/w ad estimate is a little higher than normal because we are changing the ad from 4c to b/w and because the ad submission process to the NYT takes a little longer than most. The extra time for submissions is for both the b/w and 4c ad, which is why the 4c ad doesn't have any additional costs built in.

Please review and let me know if you have any questions or if you approve as-is. The ad is due Friday so our team will proceed to create the ads.

Thank you!

10. AMI 1594 Rev 1 - TaxSlayer Bowl TV Spot Vendor

    1. This is the $50 hard cost from Comcast that I informed you about on 12/23 along with the costs to edit and traffic the spot. This project and the one above are invoiced together. Total invoice is for $400.

Also, attached is the estimate for the upcoming Collaborate Meetings Magazine ad, which totals $159.38.

We are revising one of the brand ads to include the "Like no other place in Florida, or the South" line. We are doing this one as pro-bono, so you will not be charged. :)

Please review carefully and let me know if these are approved as-is, or if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Kristen

Hey Amy,

Attached is the estimate to make the revisions to the 300x250 expandable unit for the Sojern campaign. The revisions will allow us to make certain the 300x250 animates properly by itself without the 728x90, which is was originally developed to work in conjunction with.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

10. AMI 1594 Rev 1 - TaxSlayer Bowl TV Spot Vendor

    1. This is the $50 hard cost from Comcast that I informed you about on 12/23 along with the costs to edit and traffic the spot. This project and the one above are invoiced together. Total invoice is for $400.

Also, attached is the estimate for the upcoming Collaborate Meetings Magazine ad, which totals $159.38.

We are revising one of the brand ads to include the "Like no other place in Florida, or the South" line. We are doing this one as pro-bono, so you will not be charged. :)

Please review carefully and let me know if these are approved as-is, or if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Subject: AMI NYT Ad Estimates

Hi Amy,

Attached for your review are the estimates for the two New York Times ads that are due Friday. Please note that the b/w ad estimate is a little higher than normal because we are changing the ad from 4c to b/w and because the ad submission process to the NYT takes a little longer than most. The extra time for submissions is for both the b/w and 4c ad, which is why the 4c ad doesn't have any additional costs built in.

Please review and let me know if you have any questions or if you approve as-is. The ad is due Friday so our team will proceed to create the ads.

Thank you!

Kristen

    1. This is the $50 hard cost from Comcast that I informed you about on 12/23 along with the costs to edit and traffic the spot. This project and the one above are invoiced together. Total invoice is for $400.

Also, attached is the estimate for the upcoming Collaborate Meetings Magazine ad, which totals $159.38.

We are revising one of the brand ads to include the "Like no other place in Florida, or the South" line. We are doing this one as pro-bono, so you will not be charged. :)

Please review carefully and let me know if these are approved as-is, or if you have any questions.

These scams keep going and going

Our Seniors vs. Crime office here in Fernandina had many types of scams and fraud cases during the last several weeks.

Some of these we have here are to make you aware of so you are careful when you might receive them.

1. Every so often we receive this one, on emails or letters there are job offers from "Walmart " stating they have jobs available? Be careful, check with Walmart first before you reply to this email or notice from them.

2. A number of FedEx emails – telling you to go there for a package you have – don't brother – it also is a scam..

3. Green Card – when you receive an email or phone call that you have money to be picked up at one of the local merchants so you can collect, however, the "Green Card" costs you money to pick up (and send money to the scammers). Don't!

4. IRS will send you a notice that something is wrong with your account and you owe money that must be paid immediately. IRS does not notify you by emails. Check again with your accountant or IRS office before sending your money to the scammers.

5. Your long, long lost relative – calls say he or she is in some kind of trouble and needs money. First thing is check with the relative after you hang up! It is a scam!

6. When dealing with individual contractors, be sure they are insured and license in your community, never pay for work that is not started, pay only if work is done to your complete satisfaction – be sure to have signed, detailed contract – then pay final amount.

7. The old "Lottery Winner" – we still have people who believe they have won money for being a winner from an entrance (maybe) into a contest. Case: local couple sent to scammers $170,000 in several years. Not refundable!

These are just a few samples of the recent scams we have seen – please be careful.

Call Seniors vs. Crime at 310-3226, or write svcfl@gmail.com. The office, located at the Fernandina Beach Police Department, 1525 Lime St., is open 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Manager is Chuck Sheehan; John Magna is deputy office manager.

Reverse mortgages: pros and cons

JASON ALDERMAN
For the News-Leader

Over the last decade, reverse mortgages have been marketed as an easy way for seniors to cash in their home equity to pay for living expenses. However, many have learned that improper use of the product – such as pulling all their cash out at one time to pay bills – has led to significant financial problems later, including foreclosure.

In actuality, there are some cases where reverse mortgages can be helpful to borrowers. However, it is imperative to do extensive research on these products before you sign.

Reverse mortgages are special kinds of home loans that let borrowers convert some of their home equity into cash. They come in three varieties: single-purpose reverse mortgages, Home Equity Conversion Mortgages (HECMs) and proprietary reverse mortgages.

Who can apply? Homeowners can apply for a reverse mortgage if they are at least 62 years old, own their home outright or have a low mortgage balance that can be paid off with the proceeds of the reverse loan. Qualifying homeowners also must have no delinquent federal debt, the financial resources to pay for upkeep, taxes and insurance and live in the home during the life of the loan.

Consider the following pros and cons as a starting point for trying or bypassing this loan choice. Even though HECM loans require a discussion with a loan counselor, you should bring in your own financial, tax or estate advisor to help you decide whether you have a safe and appropriate use for this product.

Pros of reverse mortgages:

They're a source of cash. Borrowers can select that the amount of the loan be payable in a lump sum or regular payments.

Proceeds are generally tax-free. Final tax treatment may rely on a variety of personal factors, so check with a tax professional.

Generally, they don't impact Social Security or Medicare payments. Again, important to check personal circumstances.

You won't owe more than the home is worth. Most reverse mortgages have a "nonrecourse" clause, which prevents you or your estate from owing more than the value of your home when the loan becomes due and the home is sold.

Reverse mortgages may be a smarter borrowing option for some downsizing seniors. With proper advice, some borrowers use them to buy new homes.

Cons of reverse mortgages:

You may outlive your equity. Reverse mortgages are viewed as a "last-resort" loan option and certainly not a singular solution to spending problems.

You and your heirs won't get to keep your house unless you repay the loan. If your children hope to inherit your home outright, try to find some other funding solution (family loans, other conventional loan products) first.

Fees can be more expensive than conventional loans. Reverse mortgage lenders typically charge an origination fee and higher closing costs than conventional loans. This adds up to several percentage points of your home's value.

Many reverse mortgages are adjustable rate products. Adjustable rates affect the cost of the loan over time.

If you have to move out for any reason, your loan becomes due. If you have to suddenly move into a nursing home or assisted-living facility, the loan becomes due after you've left your home for a continuous year.

Bottom line: Reverse mortgages have become a popular, if controversial, loan option for senior homeowners. For some, they may be a good fit, but all applicants should get qualified financial advice before they apply.

Baptist chest pain centers accredited

Baptist Health adult hospital emergency centers in Northeast Florida have received reaccreditation as Chest Pain Centers, signifying their enhanced quality of care.

Baptist Jacksonville, Baptist South, Baptist Beaches, Baptist Nassau and Baptist Clay Emergency Centers received Chest Pain Center Accreditation from the Society of Cardiovascular Patient Care (SCPC), an international not-for-profit organization that focuses on transforming cardiovascular care by assisting facilities in their effort to create communities of excellence.

To become an accredited Chest Pain Center, each Baptist Emergency Center engaged in rigorous evaluation of its cardiac care processes in order to ensure they have integrated the most successful practices and newest paradigms into its cardiac care processes, reducing the time from onset of symptoms to diagnosis and treatment.

"From the standpoint of emergency services, reaccreditation as Chest Pain Centers memorializes the excellent, rapid and efficient care delivered to patients with signs and symptoms of coronary artery disease," said Richard Stromberg, medical director for the Chest Pain Centers at Baptist Health. "We are very proud of the fact that patients are quickly evaluated, stabilized and treated and that the care is similar and excellent at all of the Baptist hospitals."

Darin C. Roark, administrator of Emergency Services for Baptist Health, said representatives from the Society of Cardiovascular Patient Care toured the hospital campuses during the week-long visit and met with Baptist Health leadership. In addition, they interviewed Baptist Health team members, physicians, patients and local Emergency Medical Services providers and conducted an extensive review of records and performance metrics.

Accredited Chest Pain Centers ensure that patients who arrive at the hospital complaining of chest pain or other symptoms of a heart attack receive the treatment necessary during the critical window of time when the integrity of the heart muscle can be preserved.

By becoming Accredited Chest Pain Centers, Baptist Health hospitals have demonstrated an enhanced the quality of care for patients and a commitment to higher standards across the entire continuum of cardiac care. This includes focal points such as emergency dispatch, Emergency Medical Services, Life Flight air ambulance, emergency centers, cardiac cath labs, Baptist Heart Hospital, and community outreach programs.

"This recognition reaffirms our commitment to providing exemplary care and highlights the dedication, skill and collaboration of our physicians, team members and our community emergency medical services providers who are saving lives every day," said John Wilbanks, Baptist Health executive vice president and chief operating officer.

Girish Shroff, interventional cardiologist with Baptist Heart Specialists, also added that the accreditation reiterates the work ethic at Baptist hospitals and shows that "our ER and cardiovascular staff and physicians strive to provide exemplary patient care."

Baptist Jacksonville additionally achieved accreditation of its tertiary-level Chest Pain Centers with Percutaneous Coronary Intervention, also known as coronary angioplasty, which is provided in the Cardiac Catheterization Laboratories at Baptist Heart Hospital, the region's only hospital dedicated to heart and vascular care. Baptist South's accreditation also included Percutaneous Coronary Intervention.

"The accreditation shows the dedication that our team members at all our Baptist Health hospitals have to cardiac care," said David Hassel, chief of cardiology for Baptist Jacksonville. "We offer the only exclusive heart hospital in the Northeast Florida area. This national recognition is just part of our commitment to providing the best cardiovascular care for the region."

Jim Harbaugh Inspires a Run on Khakis at Michigan

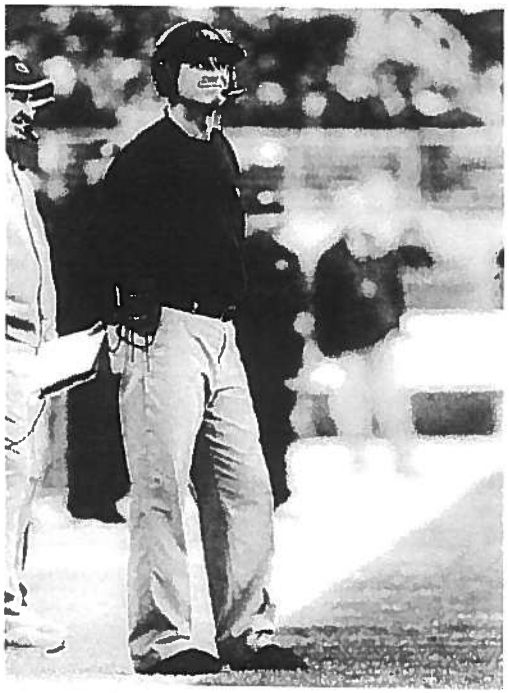
By JENNIFER CONLIN DEC. 31, 2014



Jim Harbaugh was known for his khakis as the San Francisco 49ers' coach.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — In the final days of the year, as rumors began to intensify that Jim Harbaugh would leave the San Francisco 49ers and the National Football League to take over as the head football coach here at the University of Michigan, local retailers began to notice a strange phenomenon: a sudden run on their khakis.

For among Mr. Harbaugh's many identifying quirks — like a certain glazed and unblinking look in his eyes when he addresses the news media and a laserlike intensity on the field (a trait he shares with his older brother John, the coach of the Baltimore Ravens) — perhaps the most famous is that he has worn what seems like the same pair of baggy khakis every time he takes the field.

His sartorial reputation is such that those pants spawned at least three Twitter accounts and a joking complaint from his wife when she phoned in about her husband's wardrobe to a San Francisco sports-talk radio station last January.

Subject: Estimates For Review

Hi Amy,

We are currently processing billing and we have come across estimates that we still need "official" approval on. Looking back, majority of these projects were opened during December when we were short staffed. I know I mentioned at least a couple times that estimates may come after creative however we did discuss what the costs would be. Explanations for each below. Estimates are attached in a zip file.

1. AMI 1305-VF Annual Magazine Spread & AMI 1305-VF Annual Magazine Spread App Development
    1. First estimate was for the development of the new ad and came to $1,517.25. The second estimate was for the development of the digital component for the app and came to $1,225.00. Actual came to $2,911. Invoice totals $2,742.25 which reflects a discount of $168.75.
2. AMI 1455- Philadelphia Magazine February 2015
    1. Standard resize of $255. Invoice is $255.
3. AMI 1456-Boston Magazine February 2015
    1. Standard resize of $255. Invoice came to $192.50, which is $57.50 under budget.
4. AMI 1457- New York Magazine February 2015
    1. Standard resize of $255. Invoice came to $223.75, which is $31.25 under budget.
5. AMI 1459- Chicago Magazine February 2015
    1. Standard resize of $255. Invoice came to $161.25, which is $93.75 under budget.
6. AMI 1508- VF Out of State Insert Winter 2015
    1. This was the ad we originally planned to use the beach balloons for. However due to the size of the ad space we needed to create an ad using the infinity pool profile photo and revised copy as needed as well. Estimate total was $400, actual came to $462.50. Invoice will show discount of $62.50.
7. AMI 1558- First Coast Magazine
    1. This was the quick-turnaround project that we needed to revise the Aficionauto ad to say Amelia Concours Week instead. It involved design revisions to the logo and copy. Estimate total was $816 and invoice is $766, which is $50 under budget.
8. AMI-1582 Atlanta Magazine & Charlotte Magazine February 2015
    1. Estimate was for two standard resizes for $260, which reflects a discount of $250. We did not charge for the resize of one of the ads because it was my mistake that led us to need an ad resized; I originally instructed a pick up of an ad that the pub did not have. Invoice is for under estimate at $228.75.
9. AMI 1594 REV 0 - TaxSlayer Bowl TV Spot Video Editing & Traffic
    1. Estimate totals $350. I emailed you on 12/23 and informed you that it would cost approx $300 to edit and traffic the spot. Estimate came in slightly over at $350.

10. AMI 1594 Rev 1 - TaxSlayer Bowl TV Spot Vendor

    1. This is the $50 hard cost from Comcast that I informed you about on 12/23 along with the costs to edit and traffic the spot. This project and the one above are invoiced together. Total invoice is for $400.

Also, attached is the estimate for the upcoming Collaborate Meetings Magazine ad, which totals $159.38.

We are revising one of the brand ads to include the "Like no other place in Florida, or the South" line. We are doing this one as pro-bono, so you will not be charged. :)

Please review carefully and let me know if these are approved as-is, or if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Kristen

About Trailing Interest

You may see interest on your next statement even if you pay the new balance in full and on time and make no new charges. This is called "trailing interest." Trailing interest is the interest charged when, for example, you didn't pay your previous balance in full. When that happens we charge interest from the first day of the billing period until we receive your payment in full. You can avoid paying interest on purchases by paying your balance in full and on time each month. Please see the "When we charge interest" sub-section in your Cardmember Agreement for details.

DISCONNECTION NOTICE

Account Number: 904-277-7646 001

Dear AT&T Customer:

pd

Our records show that your AT&T account is past due in the amount of $473.30.

Failure to pay the past due charges, plus any current charges that have now become past due, by December 12, 2014 may result in interruption of your AT&T service and any other services associated with your billing telephone number. These services may include, but are not limited to services such as internet, wireless, directory advertising, voicemail, maintenance plans, or entertainment service.

Non-payment of any 900 and some third party service provider charges, included in the past due amount, will not result in interruption of local service, but may result in referral to a collection agency.

If your local telephone service is interrupted for non-payment, a restoration of service charge may apply. If payment is not received your service will be disconnected. If your service is disconnected, new service orders will be required, service installation intervals may apply and additional reconnection charges may be requested.

This may be the only written notification or contact provided. If a payment is dishonored, no further notice may be given before discontinuing service.

You may pay your past due balance with a credit card or automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account by contacting AT&T at 1-800-924-1743, or online at www.att.com. If you wish to discuss this notice, please contact us at the number above.

We value you as a customer and hope that you can help us avoid this action by making your payment today. If you have already sent in your payment, we thank you and you may disregard this notice.

Sincerely,

AT&T Business Collection Center

ACCOUNT STATUS
Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement late payment interest of no more than 18% annually. Rates will vary based on state regulations. Interest will be calculated based upon daily balances and will be applicable for each day that a delinquent balance is outstanding. This charge will apply to all balances that are delinquent through such time that payment in full is received at AT&T. The late payment interest will be billed on a monthly basis. Accounts billed outside the US will not be charged LPI.

Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement a $25 service fee for restoration of service where delinquency has caused an interruption. This fee will be applicable to each account that is being restored and will be included on your monthly billing statement.

Some products require electronic billing as their official bill media. When electronic billing is the official bill media, an informational statement may be sent containing some of the same information as the electronic bill. The informational statement is not your bill. However, if you choose to mail your payment instead of paying electronically, the informational statement has a tear-off that can be used to submit your payment.

Partnership Cooperative Agreement
2014 - 2015

This agreement is between the Amelia Island Convention & Visitors Bureau and Visit Jacksonville.

Amelia Island Convention & Visitors Bureau will provide the following:

- Partnership investment as noted on the attached invoice, specifically for showcasing destination's information at the Jacksonville International Airport's Information Booth. Please note that this amount is effective only when all participants agree to participate. In the event that a partnering destination marketing organization ceases to participate in the partnership, investments may be re-calculated. Calculations are based on total rooms available in each market.
- Partnership includes destination marketing information available for distribution at the Jacksonville International Airport's Welcome Center. This would include any Visitor Guides, specialty guides, special events, etc.

In exchange for the above, Visit Jacksonville will provide the Amelia Island Convention & Visitors Bureau with the following:

- Knowledgeable, friendly staff promoting your destination to visitors inquiring about the area while at the Jacksonville International Airport.
- Rack space at the JIA Welcome Center
- Inventory tracking of your destination marketing materials available at the JIA Welcome Center. Visit Jacksonville team members will notify you via e-mail and/or phone to request additional materials.
- Monthly reports showcasing the number of visitors served at the JIA Welcome Center during official operating hours.

ACCOUNT STATUS
Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement late payment interest of no more than 18% annually. Rates will vary based on state regulations. Interest will be calculated based upon daily balances and will be applicable for each day that a delinquent balance is outstanding. This charge will apply to all balances that are delinquent through such time that payment in full is received at AT&T. The late payment interest will be billed on a monthly basis. Accounts billed outside the US will not be charged LPI.

Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement a $25 service fee for restoration of service where delinquency has caused an interruption. This fee will be applicable to each account that is being restored and will be included on your monthly billing statement.

Some products require electronic billing as their official bill media. When electronic billing is the official bill media, an informational statement may be sent containing some of the same information as the electronic bill. The informational statement is not your bill. However, if you choose to mail your payment instead of paying electronically, the informational statement has a tear-off that can be used to submit your payment.

Final ad for the 2014 Amelia Island Blues Festival	Total	$900.00

One of Sonny's best songs, When Love Begins Friendship Ends exhibits perhaps a better coming together of the two musical generations.

Little Sonny has an interesting take on the blues and his sons help him bridge musical eras. When the sons are not overwhelming dad, they together challenge their audiences to listen with new ears. Little Sonny deserves more of our attention.

—Justin O'Brien

CARLA THOMAS

Sweet Sweetheart: The American Studio Sessions and More

Stax - CDLUX 012

Producer Chips Moman gave Stax Records its first significant hits—Carla Thomas' Gee Whiz (Look At His Eyes) and the Mar-Keys' Last Night (both in 1961) and William Bell's You Don't Miss Your Water (1962)—after which he and label co-founder Jim Stewart had a falling out, the details of which remain a mystery. Moman would go on to launch his own Memphis recording studio and production company and cut hit after hit by Sandy Posey, Wilson Pickett, Elvis Presley, B.J. Thomas, Neil Diamond, Bobby Womack, and others for a variety of labels. The producer did, however, work for Stax one more time, in 1970, when he was commissioned to produce an album by Carla Thomas. Eleven songs were completed at Moman's American Studio with his usual cast of players, including guitarist Reggie Young, drummer Gene Chrisman, and backup singer Toni Wine (Moman's wife at the time), but only one single—Wine's, Irwin Levine's, and Phil Spector's I Loved You Like I Love My Very Life backed with Gerry Goffin's and Carole King's Hi De Ho (That Old Sweet Roll)—was issued. The remaining nine remained in the can until finally seeing the light of day more than four decades later thanks to Ace Records in England.

Previously recorded by both Darlene Love and Ronnie Spector, but not released at the time, the lilting ballad I Loved You Like I Love My Very Life is easily the loveliest performance of Thomas's career, and the harmony blend of her and Wine's voices is simply heavenly. The single was an instant flop, no doubt because it was too pop to please the singer's fans and R&B radio. Other standout tracks on this great, no-longer-lost album include Thomas's renditions of the Bee Gees' To Love Somebody and Ray Stevens' Everything Is Beautiful, though there's really not a weak number in the bunch. Moman and his musicians give each song a luxurious sheen atypical of Stax productions.

About Trailing Interest

You may see interest on your next statement even if you pay the new balance in full and on time and make no new charges. This is called "trailing interest." Trailing interest is the interest charged when, for example, you didn't pay your previous balance in full. When that happens we charge interest from the first day of the billing period until we receive your payment in full. You can avoid paying interest on purchases by paying your balance in full and on time each month. Please see the "When we charge interest" sub-section in your Cardmember Agreement for details.

Biscayne, where views of the Miami skyline can hardly compete with the exotic flora and fauna, while hitting the links is a family affair at resorts like the Tampa-area Innisbrook, and the northeastern Amelia Island Plantation. From Budget-Minded to Off-the-Beaten-Path, customize your golf vacation search at VISITFLORIDA.com/golf.

SHOPPING: THINK OUTSIDE THE MALL

For an experience as unique as the treasures you're sure to find, plan a girls' weekend or romantic escape in or around one of Florida's more popular shopping districts. Not only is Delray Beach a first-class resort destination known for its family-friendly festivals, the downtown area offers an eclectic blend of shoppes and boutiques. Because St. Armands Circle in Sarasota is famous for its historical ties to John Ringling, visitors can enjoy perusing the "Circus Ring of Fame" as they stroll from store to store, while art lovers flock to Las Olas Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale to treasure hunt at more than 20 galleries and craft stores. And no trip to the Palm Beach area would be complete without an afternoon on Worth Avenue. Full of upscale jewelry and clothing stores like Gucci, Cartier, Neiman Marcus, and Tiffany & Co., it's no wonder locals and visitors alike consider it the "Rodeo Drive" of Florida. For a more in-depth look at the state's top shopping spots, search "Shopping" at VISITFLORIDA.com.

HISTORY, CULTURE, & HERITAGE: WHERE YESTERDAY MEETS TODAY

More than half a century before the Mayflower, Spanish explorers celebrated the "real" first Thanksgiving feast with the Indians in St. Augustine, the oldest city in the nation. Filled with museums, landmarks, and a diverse mix of influences including Spanish, English, Greek, and Native American, today it's a great destination for history buffs, families, and everyone in between. As Florida's state capital, Tallahassee offers similar opportunities for escape and enrichment, boasting archaeological sites, plantations, and museums of history, art and science, as well as an automobile museum. And Pensacola's famous warm climate and sunny skies have earned its place in high-flying history, a legacy that can be explored at the National Naval Aviation Museum and through exhilarating air shows starring the Blue Angels Naval aerobatics team. For more historical and cultural must-sees, search "History" at VISITFLORIDA.com.

A wooded pathway that winds around the island is perfect for contemplative hikes.

moon getaway," Hill says, in his take-off version of a five stars hotel rating. "No agenda, no clocks, no deadlines. Just fun."

In truth, Eagle Island can't really be compared to any other vacation destinations. It is one of the few private islands in North America that can be rented in its entirety, and at nightly rates that are within reach of people who aren't millionaires.

The spacious wooden lodge sleeps up to 12 people, with two bedrooms on the first floor, an upstairs loft bedroom, and a large downstairs room that includes a queen bed, two bunk beds, a full bath and laundry, TV and a ping pong table.

A 1,500 square foot screened porch wraps around the entire building, which also has a large heated screened outdoor shower room on ground level. A 6-person hot tub on the porch faces a fireplace. The living room also has a TV and fireplace and flows into a spacious fully equipped kitchen and dining area. The lodge also has high speed internet, plenty of firewood, and is stocked with bed and bath linens.

Guests bring their own groceries, or they can order them online from a local Harris Teeter, where they will be picked up and delivered to the island at no extra charge. They can also hire local chef Paula Clark to come cook a low country boil and/or her "Five Moon Oysters" in the lodge's large outdoor ground floor kitchen, which is equipped

Return from intimate Chamber Music concerts to your inspired suite, just 2 blocks from Amelia's shores. Chamber Music Festival guests receive a glass of champagne upon arrival, served in souvenir glasses as mementos of your stay. Greet the morning with a full hot breakfast, and enjoy scheduled evening socials that offer extra value and more opportunities for new memories to be made. overlooking the Atlantic. Set on 10 lush acres, this family owned resort offers a portal into old Florida hospitality and unpretentious charm. The resort boasts Fort Lauderdale's largest private beach, where bright yellow umbrellas and striped cabanas lend a lively splash of color to the powder white sand. Hammocks invite guests to laze under the swaying palms. Adults gravitate to the 6,000-square foot spa, a European-style sanctuary for an aromatherapy massage or pampering pedicure while children love to play in the shallow lagoon pool whose center island hosts live music at sunset.

The Florida Keys dazzle visitors with their unsurpassed natural beauty both above and below the crystal clear water. In Key West, the southernmost outpost of the 120-mile island chain, a fabulous mix of history, cultures, iconic legends, and lore infuses the scene. Bahamian and Cuban influences enliven the music, arts and cuisine. A host of luminaries have called Key West home. Playwright Tennessee Williams lived out his days in a quiet cottage while Papa Hemingway penned some of his finest work right here. Literature lovers should take a guided tour of the Ernest Hemingway Museum, while bird and flora fans should visit the Audubon House & Tropical Gardens to see the original hand-painted lithographs of the famed naturalist. Theater, art galleries, and music festivals further fuel the Key West's creative spirit.

For aquatic adventures, there's year-round, world-class fishing abound whether you're hooking marlins or swordfish in the deep blue or catching tarpon and bonefish in the backcountry. Divers can explore the continental United States' only living-coral barrier reef that teems with marine life. Coral caves, dramatic overhangs, shipwrecks and miles of reef make this underwater playground a diver's dream come true.

Beyond its beautiful beaches, Jacksonville, aka JAX, is a vibrant thriving city that appeals to sports enthusiasts, theater-goers, music fans, foodies, and craft beer connoisseurs. Pick up a craft beer passport and hop on the Jax Ale Trail, a self-guided sudsy tour of all beer-related activity in the area, including eight local breweries, countless brew pubs and beer-centric eateries. With 19 local JAX toques on the "Best Chefs America" list, there are endless epicurean adventures to be had around town from dining at upscale bistros and hook-to-fork eateries to experiencing food trucks and fish camps. Jacksonville also stands out as a Top 25 Arts Destination in the nation, home to myriad respected institutions such MOCA, the Cummer

Amelia Island's Treasure: Let's Beach It!

You don't have to go far to get your Florida on. Just 18 miles inside the first Florida exit, Amelia Island is a refuge for those looking to get a taste of natural Florida. Thirteen miles of pristine quartz beaches line the eastern border, and the historic district on the northwest side offers 50 blocks of shops and restaurants. Enjoy each of those—accompanied by a sea breeze propagated by an ocean that reliably waits within a 5-minute drive of any point on the island.

Similarly, the Residence Inn by Marriott of Amelia Island waits to accommodate your stay. As the island's 2013 Large Business of the Year, 2014 Marriott Guest Service Platinum Award Winners, and #1 out of 11 hotels on TripAdvisor, we consider ourselves experts of our area as well. Fernandina Beachcombers. Curators of experiences. The ultimate hosts for inbound visitors. We offer a complimentary island shuttle, holiday-based events, sightseeing, fitness options including exclusive beach yoga sessions and guided bike tours, and we invite you to discover our destination-themed packages—specifically the Let's Beach It! package (special rate code: CUE).

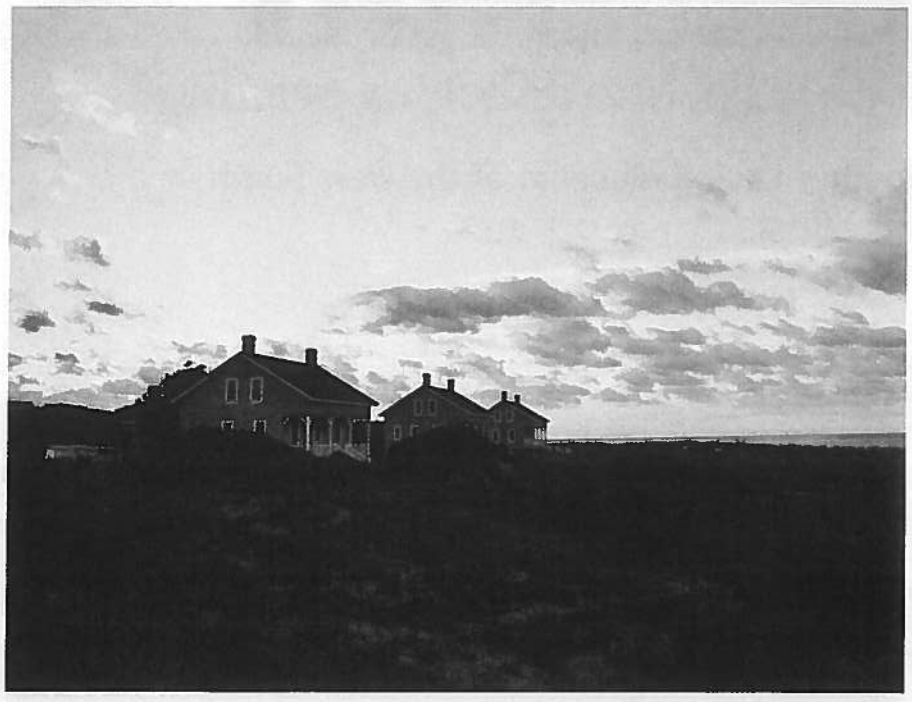
Experience the Exceptional Nature of Bald Head Island

When you board the ferry for the 20-minute ride to Bald Head Island, you leave your car and your cares on the mainland.



Just a few hours from Charlotte, Bald Head is the southernmost of North Carolina's barrier islands, marked by the legendary Cape Fear. Transportation here is by golf cart, bike or your own two feet, making for a relaxing pace.

With 10,000 of the island's 12,000 total acres set aside as preserves, the island is renowned for its natural beauty. Stroll 14 miles of uncrowded beaches. Paddle a tidal creek by kayak, canoe or Stand Up Paddleboard. Or hike miles of walking trails through a lush maritime forest.

While you're here, play the Bald Head Island Club golf course, one of the best in the Carolinas, and enjoy the pools at the island's two oceanfront clubs. Climb Old Baldy Lighthouse, circa 1817. Be sure to set aside time to relax at the island's welcoming spa.

Whether you're looking for a cozy cottage for a couple's getaway or a spacious home large enough for the entire family, Bald Head Island Limited Property Management offers the island's highest quality vacation rentals in the most desired locations, including oceanfront, marshfront, forest and marina.

Hi Melissa,

The Travel + Leisure and the Food and Wine are the same ad – same specs and same delivery – so we should only have one estimate for that one. Other than removing one of those estimates, these are approved.

ACCOUNT STATUS
Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement late payment interest of no more than 18% annually. Rates will vary based on state regulations. Interest will be calculated based upon daily balances and will be applicable for each day that a delinquent balance is outstanding. This charge will apply to all balances that are delinquent through such time that payment in full is received at AT&T. The late payment interest will be billed on a monthly basis. Accounts billed outside the US will not be charged LPI.

Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement a $25 service fee for restoration of service where delinquency has caused an interruption. This fee will be applicable to each account that is being restored and will be included on your monthly billing statement.

Some products require electronic billing as their official bill media. When electronic billing is the official bill media, an informational statement may be sent containing some of the same information as the electronic bill. The informational statement is not your bill. However, if you choose to mail your payment instead of paying electronically, the informational statement has a tear-off that can be used to submit your payment.

WIRELESS SERVICES NEWS
Don't be fooled - the real madness this month is over the latest technology from AT&T. Now it's easier than ever to get the latest

WHAT'S BREWING IN ASHEVILLE

Asheville is having a moment.

New Orleans has soulful history. Charleston's roster of chefs is full of attention-grabbing talent. But this scenic North Carolina city is making a lot of noise as of late.

That's the sound of Asheville beating the local-food drum, surrounded as it is by farm-rich countryside. The cheesemakers are prolific enough for a Western North Carolina Cheese Trail. And chefs such as James Beard semifinalist Jacob Sessoms of Table take full advantage of the abundance in a way that's strictly Asheville.

"Asheville has the unique quality of being in the South without being Southern," Sessoms says. Settled by Scotch-Irish isolationists, the city was exposed to little of the outside culture that influenced much of the South's culinary style. "These factors have led us to a place where we, as Asheville chefs, don't really have an original food culture as a touchstone with which to start—or to which we must be held accountable."

Asheville has taken that pioneering spirit to brewing. It lays claim to more breweries per capita than any other US city. People barhop the vibrant downtown in hiking boots and duck into breweries in the rehabbed South Slope, which includes Wicked Weed's newest tasting room, the Funkatorium.

"When we began discussing where to launch Wicked Weed Brewing, Asheville was the only logical choice for all of us," says owner Rick Guthy, who came to the city from Los Angeles in the '80s. "Not only because it's a place we enjoy so much but because Asheville is America's craft-beer capital."

There are other reasons to visit. Asheville is surrounded by bike trails and kayak-friendly waterways. The nearby Blue Ridge Parkway travels the spine of

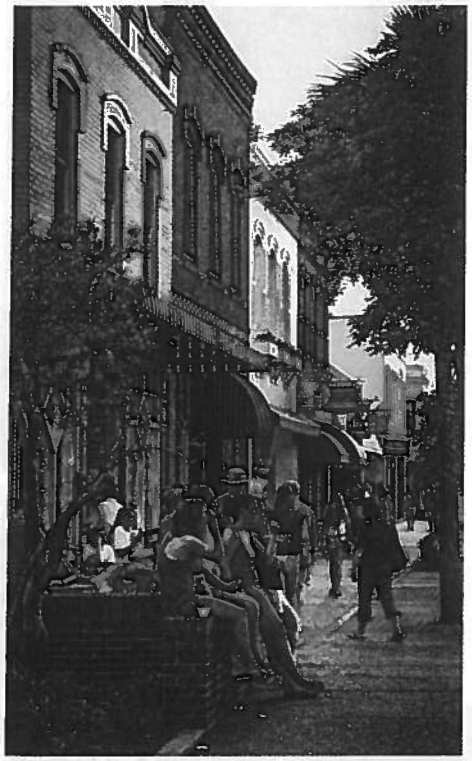
Amelia Island Fancy and Fun



An uncrowded 13-mile stretch of shoreline in Northeast Florida, Amelia Island combines natural beauty with southern charm, outdoor action with upscale accommodations. There's something here for every family member.

In addition to a gorgeous barrier island beach, Amelia is home to Fort Clinch State Park, where you and the kids can scramble over brick ramparts and learn how soldiers protected the coast in the 1800s. Delve deeper into the area's history of pirates, Indians, millionaires, and bootleggers; or enjoy a spa or round of golf.

Continue the adventure on one of the island's many hiking and biking trails. Keep your eyes peeled for a wide variety of birdlife; out on the beach look for sharks' teeth. Take a cruise on a scenic inland waterway, or glide along at water level on a stand-up paddleboard. If you want to see how birds view the island, venture skyward in a powered hang glider, or go skydiving for the thrill of a lifetime.

The town of Fernandina Beach preserves a 50-block district of ornate Victorian-era houses and buildings. Stroll the cobbled sidewalks off historic Centre Street and make your own delightful discoveries. Shops and restaurants to suit every taste are tucked away in this charming seaport.

YOU'LL FIND ABUNDANT natural beauty and outdoor adventure on Amelia Island, a coastal gem located off northeast Florida. Easily reached via Jacksonville International Airport, this 13-mile-long, two-mile-wide barrier island abounds with rich history, breathtaking scenery, and Southern charm, along with upscale resorts, lavish spas, and championship golf courses. Stay in a quaint B&B filled with character or relax in a plush luxury resort. From family-friendly to romantic, Amelia Island has getaway options for all kinds of travelers. This spring, gear up with exciting events, like the Amelia Concours Week (March 12-15) showing seven top automotive events.

Head to Fernandina Beach, a once vibrant Victorian seaport, for its downtown district of eclectic shops, eateries, and attractions, and learn more about the eight different flags that have flown over the island, as well as its infamous pirate past. Get outdoors in vast park preserves on the northern and southern tips of the island; start your day watching the sun rise over an uncrowded beach; and end it with a sunset over the stunning marshland of the Intracoastal Waterway. From towering oak trees draped in Spanish moss to nesting sea turtles, Amelia Island combines the splendor of a Southern town and awe-inspiring nature.

Holly, one of the basic tenants of Flights to Sites is that it is for "need" periods. I don't really think June qualifies. However, since we have used the program sparingly this year, I'm going to approve the request in this instance.

Good luck.

Please see attached RFP for SSN's Discover 2016, for 850 room nights in June of 2016. We are on the short list of two hotels for final placement, vs. Westin Hilton Head. The decision influencer prefers us, decision expected very soon after site visits.

Guests will arrive on Thursday night, and participate in the Fish to Fork activities, then fly out Monday afternoon.

Please advise if approved, and thank you!

Discover 2016

Who we are:
SSN is an independent broker dealer based in Knoxville, Tennessee. We have over 500 registered representatives and financial advisors affiliated with SSN nationwide. More information can be found at www.ssnetwork.com.

Purpose:
Discover 2016 is our national sales conference. It is educational in nature. The attendees are financial advisors, their guests and financial product company wholesalers and vendors.

Set-up:
In addition to general and breakout sessions, we have need for exhibit hall space for our product vendors. We typically have 25-30 exhibitors in 8x10 booths (or 10x10 depending on space). We hire a local drayage company to install the pipe and drapery. We use the exhibit hall for breakfast, breaks and one reception. If space permits, we would also like to have lunch (buffet) in the exhibit hall. We will require office space beginning on the day before the event (Tuesday) and running until the close (Sunday).

Preferred dates:

1st choice: July 16-20th
2nd choice: July 23-27th
3rd choice: June 25-29th

We generally prefer a Wednesday start date with a Sunday departure. Approximately 50 guests will arrive on Tuesday night for the Wednesday meeting (Rep Forum) but the majority of check-ins will occur on Wednesday.

Guest rooms:
We usually require 850 room nights (50 on the 1st night and 200 for the 4 conference nights)

Past History:
We have been holding an annual conference since 1995. We typically travel around the country. Past hotels include: Westin Savannah Harbor, Gaylord Opryland Resort, Marriott Newport, Renaissance Seattle Hotel. Intercontinental Chicago, Fairmont Turnberry Isle Resort (Miami), Renaissance Esmeralda Resort & Spa (Indian Wells, CA), Fairmont Boston Copley, Fairmont Scottsdale Princess, JW Marriott Marriott Resort and Spa, Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel,.

A tentative agenda for our 2016 meeting with room set-up is attached.

ACCOUNT STATUS
Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement late payment interest of no more than 18% annually. Rates will vary based on state regulations. Interest will be calculated based upon daily balances and will be applicable for each day that a delinquent balance is outstanding. This charge will apply to all balances that are delinquent through such time that payment in full is received at AT&T. The late payment interest will be billed on a monthly basis. Accounts billed outside the US will not be charged LPI.

Where allowed by law, AT&T may implement a $25 service fee for restoration of service where delinquency has caused an interruption. This fee will be applicable to each account that is being restored and will be included on your monthly billing statement.

Some products require electronic billing as their official bill media. When electronic billing is the official bill media, an informational statement may be sent containing some of the same information as the electronic bill. The informational statement is not your bill. However, if you choose to mail your payment instead of paying electronically, the informational statement has a tear-off that can be used to submit your payment.

Subject: AMI-1834 Estimate for June Issues of Washingtonian, Charlotte and Nashville

Hi Amy,

Attached is the estimate to resize the family themed ad from the creative evolution for the June issues of Washingtonian, Charlotte and Nashville Magazines. I know you are tight on production budget so I'm looking for ways to save time and costs. Therefore, because we are resizing the same ad I've opened them under one project number, which will save time and costs. If we did these separately it would cost $750. To do them together it's only going to cost $484.50. :)

Please let me know if you approve the estimate as-is or if you have any questions.

Thank you!

Kristen

ONE FLORIDA BEACH LETS YOUR KIDS COLLECT MORE THAN JUST SHELLS.

Take a scenic ride with Mother Nature. See whales, manatees and sea turtles. When your family visits Amelia Island, they'll collect what truly matters, memories.

Hi Amy,

Just wanted to follow up on this estimate to see if you could review/approve, or let me know if you have any questions.

We're going through more billing and there are a couple more invoices I'll need your "official" approval on. I'll send those in a separate email by end of day today.

Thank you!

VISIT FLORIDA CO OP 2014-2015

General Creative Best Practices

Prominent Logo

- To maximize brand awareness and recall, the logo should be present in all frames of the ad unit – even if the ad is animated. It is also good practice to keep the logo at the top of the banner in case the full banner is cut off by the fold.

Each frame should be able to stand alone

- As the image rotates each frame, it should be able to express the message completely. If a consumer tunes out after the first loop or the first frame, then they should still be able to recall the message or be able to understand what was being conveyed.

Simple Text

- Get to the point, keep it clear, concise and uncluttered. Ad content should depend on campaign goals. For instance if you're creating a branding campaign, tagline, logo and maybe another short line of copy will suffice. When writing for a banner, it is good to keep in mind the same best practices you would use on outdoor advertising: the chance of getting the consumers attention is so small that you have to keep your message simple and easy to digest in a short amount of time. You get an average of 3 seconds to get a consumer's attention, so use it wisely.

Strong call to action

- The call to action should be the most prominent ad element, in a contrasting color, and ideally in a button. It should let the user know exactly what they should do next. For example: book a trip, order a guide, sign up for email. The more users are led to where we want them to go, the more likely they are to get there.

Your message should speak to where you're sending traffic

- Creating a banner ad is only half the battle. Once you have your creative in hand, the next step is to direct it to the most relevant landing page possible. You don't want to say, "Order a guide" then send the viewer to a page where they'll be booking a hotel room. Make sure the landing page is relevant, otherwise people will bounce off if they land somewhere strange.

General Creative Best Practices

Use images wisely

- Images can have a very high impact and can help convey complex messages using few words. Also images have the ability to draw attention to your ad, and in nowadays' market, attention is scarce and precious. Keep in mind the space limitations on the ads. Simple, clear imagery will always be better than complex ones. However, one drawback of the images is that they have a relatively big file size compared to texts, vector shapes and other such graphic elements. Therefore, if you don't use images correctly, the result will be an over-sized banner that no publisher will accept.

Use legible fonts

- Especially on smaller banner ad sizes since the area of a banner ad is so small you will want to make sure that you use legible text. Verdana and Arial are very popular fonts for the web because they are easy to read. Stay away from script fonts for your call-to-action unless you are designing a larger banner ad or it is part of your logo. Keep in mind you want your prospective lead to read your message and act on it. Don't make this process difficult by using hard to read fonts.

Don't fool around with animations

- Although animations can bring your ads to life, using animations abusively can in fact kill them. It can be a bad idea to fill the banner with a lot of jumping, flashing, text going in and out, and blurring. Another disadvantage of overusing animations in banners is the increased banner file size. This will make your banner slower to download, and implicitly make the web page slower to display.

What you need to know to travel:

- Don't forget to check in for your flight(s) 24 hours before your trip on southwest.com or your mobile device. This will secure your boarding position on your flights.
- Southwest Airlines does not have assigned seats, so you can choose your seat when you board the plane. You will be assigned a boarding position based on your checkin time. The earlier you check in, within 24 hours of your flight, the earlier you get to board.
- WiFi, TV, and related services and amenities may vary and are subject to change based on assigned aircraft. Learn more.

Remember to be in the gate area on time and ready to board:

- 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: We may begin boarding as early as 30 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. We encourage all passengers to plan to arrive in the gate area no later than this time.
- 10 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: All passengers must obtain their boarding passes and be in the gate area available for boarding at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. especially at THE PLAYERS, "where dreams are shattered," he says.

The course is uniquely designed, because it is built on what was once a swamp, Vlach says. When golf course architect Pete Dye oversaw its construction in the late 1970s, he first spent a year draining the property. To accomplish that, he dug, a perimeter canal around the property and then dug out a channel to the Intracoastal Waterway. That canal, which circles the Stadium Course and the adjacent Dye's Valley Course, still exists and connects all the courses' lakes and waterways, allowing for optimal drainage in wet weather situations.

"Kind of like the city of New Orleans," Vlach says, the canal and lake system involves six pumps that are capable of pumping 17 million gallons of water per day.

Vlach and his team can manually control the lake levels, sending excess water to the Intracoastal which allows them to maintain the fairways and greens in peak condition at all times.

By being connected to the canal, "the internal lakes are self-contained holding units," which among all the golf courses in America "is unique," Vlach says. "We basically drained a swamp to build a golf course."

In part because of all the water, "it's not a golf course for the faint of heart if you are a golfer," says Matt Rapp, THE PLAYERS Championship executive director. "Many of my balls have gone into the lakes out there."

"There's been a lot of championships lost at 14," Vlach says, because of the challenge the water presents.

Hole No. 16 "is known as a risk/reward hole," Rapp says. David Toms was in the lead during a tournament a few years ago, but "pushed it" at 16 and put the ball in the water and lost, he says.

But according to Rapp, hole 17 is the most famous hole in golf. "If anybody says they are not afraid of 17, they're lying." During one PLAYERS Championship, when it was very windy, about 90 balls went into the lake there. He says, "and those are the best golfers in the world."

For scuba divers, however, the course has challenges of a different sort: alligators. The lakes are full of them. But they don't worry Davis, who's been diving for golf balls around Florida for 40 years.

"They'll come check you out," he says while eyeing a gator sunning itself on the bank of the lake he's about to enter. "But I'm a Christian," he says with a grin. "With a good relationship with Jesus."
