MISSION TRIP—The mission trip to Sao Paulo, Brazil is July 17th through Tuesday, July 25th. The plan is to work with Home Bible Studies, a one-day VBS, ESL Class, and church services. Cost per person is $2000; Financial aid is available. A $500 deposit is due today. If you have questions, see John.

We have nine older children who were selected for the Kentucky Baptist All-State Children's Choir. These students and their chaperones will be at Cedarmore Friday and Saturday for rehearsal camp, and then will sing in two churches on Sunday. The final concert is next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 at First Baptist Bowling Green. Pray for their safe travel and a great time of growth and ministry for them. Our participants are Kendall Addington, Isaac Barton, Luke Barton, Holly Clay, Sophie Gaddis, Cathryn Logan, Sofia McCoy, Riley Minton, Ethan Shephard, and Will Young.

During the regular March 12th BDBC Business Meeting a recommendation from the floor was made that John Cashion be transitioned from interim to permanent pastor. The ensuing discussion revolved around how to do this expeditiously and in accordance with the BDBC bylaws. The culmination of this discussion was a motion to initiate the formation of a Pastor Search Committee per bylaws, the motion passed. The Deacons pursuant to this motion have begun the process of selecting a PSC (Pastor Search Committee); ballots with your nominations for this committee should be placed in the boxes found at various locations around the building.

Attention Ladies: Come see Chanda Pierce's movie "Enough." The movie speaks about allowing God to be Enough in your life. She brings laughter to this topic like no one else can. This movie will be shown one time only on April 25, 2017. Depending on ticket availability, we will be going to either Owensboro or Bowling Green. If interested, please contact Christy Whitis no later than April 19th so she can secure tickets.

The restrooms in the hallway behind the sanctuary are being renovated. We ask that you use the restrooms in the educational building and the church foyer. The handicapped restroom near the preschool area is also open; please allow our senior members and those who have difficulty with steps to have priority in the use of that restroom.
