SCRIPTURE - FELLOWSHIP - PRAYER - OUTREACH

If you've never been part of a Home Group, you're only experiencing half of the ministry at Crawford Avenue!

We primarily gather in two ways: on Sunday mornings and in Home Groups. Both expressions are essential to experiencing the full joy of God's design for the church, as we submit to His instruction and commit to each another in Gospel love. In the midst of a culture that calls us to busy ourselves with media, recreation, and working overtime, we commit ourselves to the regular activity of glorifying God and sacrificially serving others through these two simple channels.

GET THE MOST OUT OF HOME GROUPS!

- 1. SIGN-UP Use this guide to find a Home Group that works for you, then register one of three ways: in the lobby, on a Connection Card, or online.
- 2. COMMIT Altering your routine for a few months can be challenging, but committing to regular group study is both rewarding and refreshing.
- 3. ENGAGE Develop relationships by spending time with others outside of regular meetings. Take initiative by inviting someone over for coffee or by going out to lunch after a Sunday gathering.

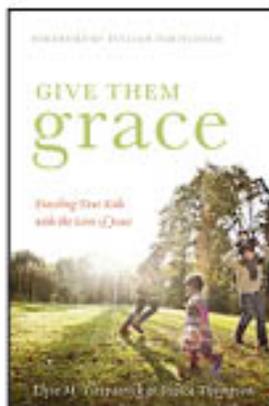

Not all homes are able to provide childcare. To find a group that provides free childcare, look for this symbol.

Give them Grace

HG-1 — SUNDAYS — 4:30PM-6:00PM — Martinez

Dazzle your kids with the love of Jesus

We all want to raise good kids, but what exactly do we mean by “good?” Give Them Grace is a biblical perspective on parenting that shows us how to receive the gospel afresh and give grace in abundance. Instead of focusing on moralism or behavior modification, we must demonstrate the love of a grace-giving God who freely adopts rebels and transforms them into loving sons and daughters. Let the grace of the gospel transform your parenting, as we join to discuss what it means to raise children in a God-glorifying home.

Experiencing the Trinity

HG-2 SUNDAYS | 5:00PM-6:30PM | Augusta

Anything but dry theology

All Christians believe in the Trinity, but most Christians, if we're honest, don't like to think about the Trinity that much. The doctrine seems abstract, dry, and distant from everyday life. This book will change that for you. Joe Thorn points us to the joy of a God who is Father, Son, and Spirit, showing us how this truth should prompt us to worship, pray, and trust. In a series of 50 short devotions, Thorn applies this great doctrine without putting us out of its mystery. This book can better equip you to praise God, from whom all blessings flow.

1 & 2 Peter

HG-3 SUNDAYS | 5:00PM-6:30PM | CABC

Give God glory in the midst of suffering

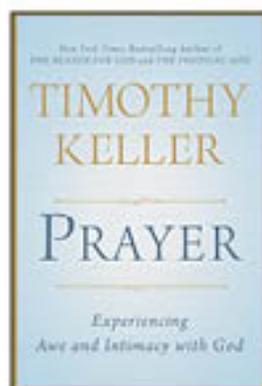

First century Christians suffered persecution to a degree that is hard for us to fully grasp. In addition to abuse, arrest, and affliction, these believers were also faced with false teachers who would distract and deter them from pursuing the Lord, opting instead for an easier path. Though our circumstances differ, Christians today still face many trials. In these trials, the apostle Paul encourages believers to rejoice in their Savior, that their testing might result in further holiness and purity in the Lord. Be encouraged by the Word as we study 1 & 2 Peter together.

Prayer

HG-4 SUNDAYS | 7:00PM-8:30PM | Martinez

Experiencing awe & intimacy with God

Christians are taught in their churches and schools that prayer is the most powerful way to experience God. But few receive instruction or guidance in how to make prayer genuinely meaningful. In Prayer, renowned pastor Timothy Keller delves into the many facets of this everyday act. With his trademark insights and energy, Keller offers biblical guidance as well as specific prayers for certain situations, such as dealing with grief, loss, love, and forgiveness. He discusses ways to make prayers more personal and powerful, and how to establish a practice of prayer that works for each reader.

HG-4: Led by Evan Ansley

Colossians/Philemon (ESV: Knowing the Bible)

HG-5 MONDAYS | 7:00PM-8:30PM | Grovetown

The Gospel on display in daily life

The books of Colossians and Philemon complement each other as two New Testament texts that gloriously display the gospel and its implications for how God's people should live today. This short guide will help readers see how both letters resonate with the apostle Paul's overriding passion: magnifying Jesus Christ as the supreme manifestation of God's redemptive purposes. Join us we study these books and discuss the implications of setting our minds on things that are above.

A Christian classic on God's character

Why Trust the Bible?

HG-9 WEDNESDAYS | 6:30PM-8:00PM | Augusta

Answers for Christians & for the curious

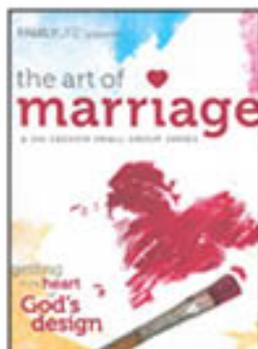

The Bible stands at the heart of the Christian faith. But this leads to an inescapable question: why should we trust the Bible? Written to help non-Christians, longtime Christians, and everyone in between better understand why God's Word is reliable, this short book explores the historical and theological arguments that have helped lead millions of believers through the centuries to trust the Bible. This volume will help Christians articulate why they trust the Bible when it comes to who God is, who we are, and how we're supposed to live..

Titus

(Women's Bible Study)

~~HG-W SUNDAYS | 6:30PM-8:00PM | N. Augusta~~

Sound doctrine, sound living

Paul's letter to Titus emphasizes the natural relationship between sound doctrine and sound living. Throughout this study, we will learn the foundational truths of the Christian faith; truths that instruct, motivate, and transform men and women within the home, the church, and society. As we meet together regularly and discuss this portion of Scripture, we'll also discuss how to study the Bible, equipping women with the tools to study and enjoy the Bible.
