Calendar

May 22nd-24th: MAP Testing

May 28th: Memorial Day - No School

June 7th: Last Day Of School (AHHH!)

The countdown is on! 16 days!

WOW! I can't believe we only have 16 days left of this year! It has been a wild ride, but such a great time! I have really enjoyed each student this year! It is going to be tough to say goodbye! With that said, please take a minute to remind your child that we are still learning and it's important they continue to stay focused and give their all!

Tomorrow we start MAP testing. We will be testing Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. I am looking forward to seeing the growth made. Please remind your child to have a good breakfast, get plenty of rest, and to be in the classroom on time. We test right away at 8:15.
