Summer Vacation! Few phrases inspire as much anticipation or as many fond memories as this one. Before last week's Children's Message, I asked the children how many more days of school they had. They all knew exactly how many! The count-down had begun weeks ago.

I remember those days. I could hardly wait for the last day of school and the prospect of a whole summer to do whatever I wanted, whenever I wanted (well, within reason...). Of course before too many days of summer have passed, parents can expect to hear, "I'm bored. There's nothing to do."

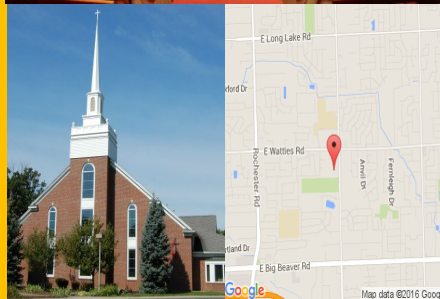

My nephews know exactly what I'm going to say if they say they are bored: "Only people with small minds get bored. Use your imagination!"

There's not much chance of getting bored this summer at BBUMC!

- Our summer season kicks off with the All Church Picnic on July 9th (following the summer worship service at 10 am)
- The landscapers will be working on the Memorial Garden in mid-July.
- We will continue to provide an informal worship service at the Heartland medical rehabilitation center at 3:15 pm on the second and fourth Sundays of each month.
- Vacation Bible School is scheduled for July 31-August 4 and we'll be able to hear all about it on VBS Sunday (August 6th).
- Plans are underway for a Talent Show (including arts and crafts) on Saturday, September 9th. Start rehearsing now! It is scheduled to begin at 3 pm and lead up to the...
- Men's Chicken Barbeque Dinner—a sumptuous half a chicken with all the "fixin's".
- Sign-ups have already begun for S.O.S. week (September 17-24) when clients of South Oakland Shelter will be our guests for a week. There are all sorts of opportunities! Everything from doing laundry and preparing meals to providing transportation and "calling Bingo". Donations of toiletries, "prizes" and, of course, financial resources will also be welcome. Plan to come for dinner an evening or two during the week and become better acquainted with our guests.
- Don't forget about Sunday Morning Worship each week at 10 am! We will continue the practice of alternating between Contemporary and Traditional Worship.

You might even be able to squeeze in some time for a family get-away or a day or two at the beach. I hope you enjoy summer to the fullest. Thank God for every opportunity to rest and relax and/or work to God's glory. May your summer be a pleasant mixture of the two. Use your imagination!

Library News

We have a variety of new adult nonfiction books that I hope intrigues you to use your church library

Author Squire Rushnell's after school specials on ABC have won him many Emmy's. He has also written a series of books demonstrating how God speaks directly to us. The first book titled When God Winks at You (248.32) uses coincidence to speak to us and Divine Alignment shows how the arrangements of these happenings into a pattern directs the path you may take.

Adam Hamilton in the book Making Sense of the Bible (220.61) will help you rediscover the power of scripture in today's life. The Handbook of Fighter Aircraft, The Book of Energy and Electricity and Magnetism in our science section deals with the history of and the present day use of each of these subjects. The photographic story of Thomas Edison combines the above 2 subjects. Last, but not least, Once upon a Game fits this season in a great review of baseball's greatest memories.

We also have some new adult fiction books. Two by Dan Brown, The DaVinci Code and Inferno will give you some pretty exciting reading. Clara and Mr. Tiffany by Susan Vreeland, is based on the famous glassmaker and his wonderful employee.

Most books in the adult library can be read both by teens and older, but the ones on the youth shelves have been written for middle school and high school readers specifically.

Diary of an Early American Boy by Noah Blake takes place in the early 19th century and will take you into a premodern world to a time of great inventions.

Do you think you'd like to live in an underground shelter for 6 years? Fallout by S.A. Bodeen will take you on this scary ride. Another scary adventure is This Book is Not Good for You by P. Bosch. Read and see if you could help them solve the mystery.

Susan Cooper has written a 5th book in The Dark is Rising Series. Can this group of teenagers save our world from evil? Great for summer reading.

All above books will be on display on the new book shelf outside the library!

WANTED:

BROWN PAPER BAGS!

Please save your brown paper grocery bags and donate them to the church.

You can drop them off next to the recycling bins.

Thank You!

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Annually, the Renaissance District of United Methodist Women (UMW) does an ingathering project as a support for organizations that work with women and children.

This year, our UMW are collecting diapers and wipes for PR Kids, a Maternal Infant Health Program, which provides parental support for pregnant mothers and infants in Oakland, Wayne and Macomb Counties.

The team from Infant Mental Health Specialists tries to find community resources as well as answer questions and provide overall support. They service mothers with children from birth to 18 months.

There will be a playpen set up in the Narthex to collect wipes and diapers of all sizes. Although this is a UMW project, we are asking for total church participation in this ingathering project.

The collection will run from July 23rd to September 17th.

For more information, please contact Nancy Cormier (248) 879-0233.

Refugee Resettlement Project: Welcome Home Update

Here is a quick list of what we have so far accomplished in helping our Sister-in-Christ and her three children -

Rent - the biggest source of stress is having enough money to pay the rent. Our BBUMC RR Committee is paying June-Aug rent and providing budgeting mentoring to Mom.*

Household donations - all of the items generously donated by BBUMC were brought to the family. Our gifts have been put to good use and have filled her sparse apt.*

Bikes - we were able to acquire a couple gently used bikes and Wally Gannon donated a new Barbie trike for the three children. All were delivered (with bike helmets) and have been enjoyed almost 24/7.*

Summer Playground - BBUMC will be enrolling the school-aged children in a local summer school camp program.*

ESL - BBUMC will be providing regular transportation for Mom to ESL classes weekly.*

• We are also addressing health issues for both mom and her oldest child (daughter) by accompanying them to doctor visits and hopefully mentoring in this area as well.
