

Broadway Presbyterian Church

Broadway Visitor

Where we build relationships
and expand connections

Volume XXVII, Issue 4

April 2013

BOOK CLUB NEWS

The Karon Book Club will resume our regularly scheduled meeting day, the second Wednesday, April 10th at Granite City, 5270 Utica Ridge Rd., Davenport. The book for discussion in April is Jungleland by Christopher Stewart. It sounds like a great read, a lot of adventure and suspense.

Jungleland: A Mysterious Lost City, a WWII Spy, and a True Story of Deadly Adventure
by Christopher Stewart

“I began to daydream about the jungle...”

On April 6, 1940, explorer and future World War II spy Theodore Morde (who would one day attempt to assassinate Adolf Hitler), anxious about the perilous journey that lay ahead of him, struggled to fall asleep at the Paris Hotel in La Ceiba, Honduras.

Nearly seventy years later, in the same hotel, acclaimed journalist Christopher S. Stewart wonders what he’s gotten himself into. Stewart and Morde seek the same answer on their quests: the solution to the riddle of the whereabouts of Ciudad Blanca, buried somewhere deep in the rain forest on the Mosquito Coast. Imagining an immense and immaculate El Dorado-like city made entirely of gold, explorers as far back as the Spanish conquistador Hernán Cortés have tried to find the fabled White City. Others have gone looking for tall white cliffs and gigantic stone temples—no one found a trace.

A story of young fatherhood as well as the timeless call of adventure, this is an epic search for answers in a place where nothing is guaranteed, least of all survival.

- Judy Medley

