Meet & Greet Question: What is your favorite thing to eat?

GAME: FORBIDDEN MARBLES

Purpose: To introduce the theme of temptation and relate it to the sin of Adam and Eve.

Supplies: Ten marbles per team plus about twenty extra (or plastic Easter eggs, golf balls, pebbles, stones, or ping pong balls), one small container for each team, a larger container

Prepare: Hide ten marbles per team around the room where they cannot be easily seen but are not too difficult to find. Place the extra marbles in the larger container and place it in a central spot in the room.

Let’s see which team can be the first to collect ten marbles. The marbles are hidden in this room. Do you see the container of marbles in the center of the room? Those are the forbidden marbles. Forbidden means not allowed. You cannot take any of those marbles.

Directions:
1. Form teams. Depending on the size of your class, you may have two to five players per team.
   - Give a small container to each team to hold the marbles they collect.
2. On your signal, each team races to find ten marbles.
3. When teams have their marbles, The first team to collect ten marbles wins.
4. Optional: Give all the teams time to collect their ten marbles.

As you watched other teams find marbles, were you worried about not finding the marbles you needed first? (Children respond.) The forbidden marbles were easy to find. Was anyone tempted to try to sneak some forbidden marbles into your container to help you win? (Children respond.) Why would it have been wrong to take the forbidden marbles? (It would have been cheating, disobeying the rules, and not fair to the other teams.) Today, we are going to discover Adam and Eve disobeyed God by eating the fruit God told them not to eat. Theirs was the first sin.
Welcome! Today, we worship the God who provides. In today’s story, we will learn God provided for Adam and Eve even when they disobeyed Him. God does the same for us. As we give our offerings, let’s think about the ways God provides for us. Sing: “Praise the Lord, O My Soul” while offering is collected.

We can trust God to provide all we need. Sing Unit 6 Bible Memory Verse Song: “Yahweh Everyday: Trust in the Lord.”

You may also choose to sing songs that focus on God’s provision.

After Adam and Eve’s first sin, all people were separated from God by sin. But, God provided His Son to make a way for us to be close with Him once more. Let’s praise God for that. Read Romans 5:8.

Perform Bible Barn script or read storybook: God of Wonders Unit 6, Lesson 27.
Teacher Tip: As you move from worship to instruction, change rooms or locations within a room to help redirect the children’s focus to the Bible story. During this transition time, have each child write his or her name on a card and place it in the Golden Bowl.

Before we read God’s Word, let’s go over our Class Covenant. A covenant is an agreement. Just as God made a covenant with His people, I ask each of you to make this covenant promise with me today. Listen as I read our Class Covenant: “I will keep my eyes on my teacher, my mouth in control, my ears on God’s Word; knowing God is my goal.”

Last time, we learned God rested after finishing creation. What are some ways we can rest? (Spend time alone thinking about God, enjoy His creation, gather with others to worship together, etc.)

If a Bible Timeline is available, point to Adam and Eve. For a Bible Timeline Review activity, see the GOT TIME? segment of this lesson. Today, we will discover how sin first entered the world when Adam and Eve disobeyed God. They lived in the Garden of Eden. If a map of the Middle East is available, point out the Tigris and Euphrates rivers that border Mesopotamia. Experts may disagree on the exact location of Eden, but it was an actual place in the Middle East near the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

Let’s play Find It First! Bring out your Bible; keep it right in front of you. Hand out spare Bibles. Today’s Scripture verse is behind the curtain (or secret door, secret window, etc.). Child reveals the Bible Story Scripture reference: Genesis 2:16-17; 3:1-6, 8-9, 12-13, 21, 23. Let’s see who can Find Genesis 3:6 First. Ready? Set? Go! Children race to find it first. The winner helps others find it. Let’s highlight our Key Verse: Genesis 3:6.

Before we read, let’s stand and ask God to open our eyes, ears, hearts, and minds to His Word today. Who would like to pray that for us? Child prays aloud. Be seated. Read Genesis 2:16-17; 3:1-6, 8-9, 12-13, 21, 23.

Teacher’s Tip: The Bible does not identify the forbidden fruit as an apple or another specific fruit. It describes the tree as beautiful and explains its fruit looked delicious to Eve.
God provides us with choices

Additional Supplies: Children’s Guide for New Believers

What was God’s rule about the garden trees? (Adam and Eve could eat from any tree except for the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.) What did the serpent want Eve to do? (Eat the forbidden fruit.) What were Eve’s choices when the serpent tempted her? (To walk away, to discuss it with God, to discuss it with Adam, to eat the fruit.) What other choice did Adam have when Eve offered him the fruit? (To say no, to help her say no.) What choice did they make? (They ate the fruit.)

What were the three reasons Eve chose to disobey God? (The fruit was ready to be eaten, it looked pleasing, and it could give her wisdom.) We are often tempted by things that are within our reach, that are pleasing, and that promise us something we want. What wrong choices tempt you? (Children respond.)

What did Adam and Eve do when they heard God coming? (They hid.) What better choice could they have made? (To go to God and confess their sin.) Have you ever broken a rule and then tried to hide what you had done? (Children respond.)

Who did Eve blame when she chose to disobey God’s rule? (The serpent.) The serpent was wrong to tempt Eve, but was it the serpent’s fault she disobeyed? (No. Eve chose to disobey.) Who did Adam blame when He disobeyed? (Eve.) Eve was wrong to offer the fruit to Adam, but was it her fault He disobeyed? (No. Adam chose to disobey.) Have you ever wanted to blame someone else when you chose to disobey? (Children respond.) Why is it wrong to blame others for the choices we make? (Children respond.)

Connecting the Old Testament, the New Testament, and Us

CHRIST CONNECTION

Before Adam and Eve disobeyed God, there was no sin in the world. Their first sin is called “The Fall of Man.” From that point on, every person has been born a sinner and continues to struggle with sin. Adam and Eve’s sin is called “The Fall” because it is as if they, and all people, fell away from God. Thousands of years after the first sin, Paul spoke about our sins. Let’s find out what he said.

FIND IT FIRST> Everyone, place your Bible closed on your lap. Choose a child to reveal the Christ Connection Scripture reference: Romans 3:22-23. Let’s see who can Find It First! Ready? Set? Go! Find it and highlight it. Read Romans 3:22-23.

Who has sinned? (Everyone.) It is like we have all fallen away from God. Our sin separates us from God, but God loves us so much that He has provided a way for us to come close to Him. He sent His Son Jesus to pay for our sins so that whoever believes in Him will no longer be separated from God. If a child would like to know more about this, use the Children’s Guide for New Believers for further discussion and prayer.
Revelation 5:8

GOLDEN BOWL

Teacher Tip: Write the names of classmates, local church leaders, and children in other nations or others who need prayer on small pieces of paper. Place the papers in a golden bowl.

Revelation 5:8 says our prayers are like sweet smelling incense in the golden bowls at God’s throne. I will lift each one of your names to God’s throne as you pray for each person silently. Then, we will pray the Lord’s Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13) aloud together. Let’s pray.

Lord God, we lift up to Your throne the name of each child here. We trust You to watch over us and our needs, the ones we say aloud and the ones hidden in our hearts. First, we lift up to You ____, ____, ____. Read names in Golden Bowl.

Now, we pray the prayer Your Son taught us: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

When only 5 minutes remain, begin this segment.

FINAL FIVE MINUTES

TREASURE TREAT: Today, your Treasure Treat is a bookmark with our new Bible Memory Verse. Let’s read it together. Read. Look at the verse each day and try to memorize it. Put it in your Bible to help you remember that, if you trust God, He will help you obey Him. For a craft version of this bookmark, see the GOT TIME? segment of this lesson.

Teacher Tip: Collect Daily Ways in a basket or other container and periodically reward children as a group for completing the challenge.

OFFERING OF ART: Until it is time to be dismissed, let’s make an Offering of Art. For your offering, draw a picture of Adam and Eve leaving the garden. The Offering of Art can be finished at home or given as an offering for the teacher to display.

PRAYER REQUESTS: As children work on their Offering of Art, ask how you can pray for them this week. Write requests in a prayer notebook.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE SONG: Play the Unit 6 Bible Memory Verse Song, “Yahweh Everyday: Trust in the Lord,” in the background as children wait to be dismissed.

GOT TIME?

SNACK: GOOD FRUIT

Purpose: To enjoy a fruit snack and discuss the many fruit trees God gave Adam and Eve.

Snack suggestion: Apples, dipping caramel

Prepare: Slice the apples. If preparing the apples more than an hour before snack time, brush the slices with lemon juice and chill to keep them from browning.

God gave Adam and Eve the entire Garden of Eden filled with good fruit to eat. There was only one tree God said they were not allowed to eat from. Let’s enjoy some of the good fruit they may have enjoyed eating.

Directions:
1. Ask a child to pray and thank God for the snack.
2. Spoon some caramel onto each child’s plate and give them several slices of apple to dip into the caramel.
3. Ask the Snack Discussion Question: What is a rule your family has and why do you think it is important?

GAME: THE RULE SAYS

Purpose: To remind children to trust the rules instead of leaning on their own understanding.

Supplies: None

Let’s play a game where we talk about why some of the rules we have are important. If I give you a rule, such as “don’t run across the street,” stay still. But, if I say, “The rule says don’t run across the street,” I want you to raise your hand if you can explain why that rule is important.

Directions:
1. Begin by saying “The Rule Says ______.” Complete the sentence with a rule. These may be from the Bible, your classroom, a school, children’s homes, or your community.
2. Children raise their hands if they can explain why it is important to follow that rule.
3. Give another rule such as “Brush your teeth.” The children should stay still.
4. Give a few more rules either with or without “The Rule Says ______.”
5. After a few rounds, allow children who answer why the rule is important to take a turn giving the rules to the class.
6. Continue to play for as many rounds as time allows.

God gave one rule to Adam and Eve. What was it? (Do not eat from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.) How did Eve lean on her own understanding? (She listened to the serpent’s reasoning and ate the fruit.) How might the story have been different if Eve had not leaned on her own understanding? (She might not have disobeyed God.) Why do we have rules? (To keep us safe and help us live with each other.) God, our parents, teachers, and church leaders give us rules to help us do what is right and good. What rule is hard for you to understand and obey? (Children respond.)
GOT TIME? continued...

GAME: TEMPTATION
Purpose: To help children identify and avoid their temptations.
Supplies: Slips of paper, pencils

The serpent tempted Adam and Eve to taste the forbidden fruit. Who or what tempts you? (Children respond.) Where are you when you feel tempted? (Children respond.) How can you avoid being tempted? (Make good choices concerning coming near tempters and temptations.)

Directions:
1. Give each child a slip of paper and a pencil.
2. Children write a sentence or less describing a temptation such as cheating, stealing, disobeying, telling a lie, hurting someone, or complaining. Children do not sign their names.
3. Shuffle the papers.
4. Read the temptations to the class and have the children brainstorm ways to avoid that temptation.

CRAFT: BIBLE MEMORY VERSE DOOR HANGER
Purpose: To create a visual reminder in the children’s homes to trust the Lord every day.
Supplies: Colorful sturdy paper, stickers, yarn, Unit 6 Bible Memory Verse poster, hole punch, crayons or markers
Prepare: Cut the sturdy paper across its width into five equal strips. Cut yarn into 12-inch lengths. Display the Unit 6 Bible Memory Verse poster.

Adam and Eve sinned by making choices that were wrong in God’s eyes. Since that first sin in the Garden of Eden, we have all sinned. Every day we are given choices. We can choose to trust God and do what is right in His eyes or we can choose to disobey by doing what is right in our own understanding. Let’s read our Bible Memory Verse. Display Proverbs 3:5-6 and read it together. Today, we will make a Proverbs 3:5-6 door hanger. Hang it on a door in your home. Each time you go through the door, ask God to help you make good choices that day.

Directions:
1. Give each child a strip of paper.
2. Children punch a hole near the top of their door hanger.
3. Children copy the Bible Memory Verse onto their door hanger. Assist younger children or have older children help them.
4. Decorate the door hanger with stickers and crayons or markers.
5. Thread a 12-inch length of yarn through the hole.
6. Knot the yarn to create a large loop that can fit over a doorknob.

BIBLE TIMELINE REVIEW

Review the recent Bible stories studied to see the continuing story of who God is and what He has done. Create or purchase a Bible Timeline. Hang your timeline on a wall or other visible location. Point to the Bible Timeline and ask the corresponding questions to review recent lessons.

Creation: What did God create on the first day? (Light, day, night.) What did He create on the second day? (Sky, the air above the water.) What did God fill the heavens and earth with on the third and fourth days? (Trees, plants, sun, moon, stars.) What did God create on the fifth and sixth days? (Birds, sea creatures, animals, creeping things, people.) What are some ways we can care for God’s creation? (Recycle, do not litter, water plants, care for animals, help people.)

Adam and Eve: What did Adam and Eve do that was the first sin in the world? (Adam and Eve disobeyed God by eating from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.)

How to create a Bible Timeline from Genesis through Joshua:
1. Print each story title or person’s name with the historical date (whenever available) on a card.
2. Before each lesson, add that new card to the Bible Timeline.
3. Attach card to wall or clothesline in the following order for God of Wonders Lesson 22-47:

Genesis through Joshua: Creation > Adam and Eve > Cain and Abel > Noah (Circa 2350.B.C.) > Tower of Babel > Abram (Circa 2100 B.C.) > Hagar and Ishmael (Circa 2065 B.C.) > Abraham and Isaac (Circa 2050 B.C.) > Isaac and Rebekah > Jacob and Esau (Circa 1900 B.C.) > Joseph (Circa 1850 B.C.) > Moses (Circa 1500 B.C.) > Joshua (Circa 1450 B.C.)

Note: God of Wonders Part Two studies the miracles and stories of the Bible from Genesis through Joshua. For a comprehensive list of Genesis through Revelation stories in timeline form, see ResourceWell.org.
