We have now been in Baños del Inca for a little over 2 months! Everyday we are learning more about our new home, the people of Peru, and what God has for us here! It is hard to believe we have only been here 2 months because I feel like we have already made so many friends. It is very exciting when we are in town going to the big grocery store and we see people we know!! It feels nice knowing that we are forming relationships with the local Peruvian people. We have been invited to a birthday party for a young Peruvian girl who attends our church, her 15th birthday! It is quite an honor that we have been invited to her family party. We have also been invited to attend a wedding! This will be our first time attending a Peruvain wedding!

We were incredibly blessed this pass month to be able to host a mission team from Lima here in Baños. They were such an encouragment and blessing to our church. They were equally as excited as we were because they had been praying for a church to start in the Baños area. We did evangelism and dramas in the Plaza de Armas, children's outreaches at two orphanages, and they came with us to our outreaches in Matara and Carhuaquero.

Probably one of the most exciting times was being at the 2 orphanages. One was a state run facility, and the other was a Catholic facility that was for special needs children. We were very welcomed at both facilities to share Bible stories, do puppet shows, and lots of singing! Please join us in praying that The Lord will open the doors for us to continue doing ministry at these orphanages.

The Lord has been stretching all of us and we are so grateful. I have had the privledge of preaching while Ryan is in the states on his furlough, and Stacey is now helping in the children's ministry at church. She was very excited last week because she said she was able to have her first conversation in Spanish; with a 4 year old :)
