

Camp Fuego
Staff Application

Thank you for your interest in being a part of the Camp Fuego Staff. It is the commitment of people like you that allows us to reach the students that may not otherwise be reached...so thank you!

Keep in mind that to be a part of the Camp Fuego staff, you must be at least 18 and one year out of high school. You also must be a committed believer in Jesus Christ and actively involved in a local church.

Though the Camp Fuego statement of belief is longer than this, you must agree that man was created by God in His own image; that he sinned and thereby incurred physical, spiritual and eternal death, which is separation from God; that as a consequence, all human beings are born with a sinful nature and are sinners by choice and therefore under condemnation. We believe that those who repent and forsake sin and trust Jesus Christ as Savior are regenerated by the Holy Spirit and become new creatures, delivered from condemnation and receive eternal life.

If the above paragraphs apply to you, please continue this application with our heartfelt gratitude.

Due to unique and special nature Fuego staff members are expected to manifest conduct and actions which project an image consistent with the expressed purpose and mission of Fuego. Fuego has been given a place of influence based upon the values of trust and respect. It is, therefore, imperative staff members favorably represent Fuego. Conduct which brings embarrassment to Fuego or impedes its credibility with constituents is unacceptable. Conduct or other actions inconsistent with that normally expected of Southern Baptist denominational employees and other Christians are unacceptable. Similarly, conduct or other actions perceived as inconsistent are unacceptable. Examples of such conduct are involvement with alcohol, illegal drugs, pre-marital or extra-marital sex, homosexuality, cohabitation apart from the marriage relationship, and outside interests and pursuits which would normally be considered incompatible with Fuego's mission. Fuego has not only the right, but also the responsibility to do everything possible to ensure the stated purpose and mission of Fuego continues in its highest tradition and is not harmed or impeded by unacceptable behavior on the part of its employees. Consistent with this purpose, Fuego's policy is to ensure all applicant and staff behavior meets Fuego's standards of acceptable conduct. As a part of this policy, an individual's current and past conduct is reviewed. Therefore, please respond accordingly to the inquiry below. A "yes" answer does not automatically disqualify you from further consideration for staff, as each individual's circumstances are reviewed.

Do you currently have any lifestyle, conduct, or activity which would project an image which could embarrass Fuego or impede its credibility with its constituents as referred to above?* Yes No
