INFORMATION WE GATHER

We respect the privacy of children and do not collect any more personal information than reasonably necessary to enable them to participate in the activities we offer at our website.

With respect to our online information collection practices from children under 13 years of age:

Visitors are given the option to submit their e-mail address to register for our online newsletter via e-mail. Permission is not required for this request. However, at any time a visitor's information can be removed from this newsletter list by contacting us in one of the above ways.

Please note that parents may consent to the above collection and use without necessarily consenting to the disclosure of personal information to third parties.

With respect to the collection by other organizations of personal information from children at our site, our policy is:

We do not have any agreements with outside organizations to collect personal information at our site.

USE AND SHARING INFORMATION

The information we collect from children is used to respond to children's specific requests to participate in activities such as subscription to an online newsletter.

With respect to sharing information we do not share children's personal information with any third parties.

PARENTAL REVIEW

Parents can review the information that we have collected from their children online, prevent the further use or maintenance of such information, or direct the deletion of their children's personal information by either calling us at the telephone number provided above, e-mailing us at the above address or writing to us at the above address

FURTHER PRIVACY INFORMATION
