

Statement regarding Tremont Congregational Church and St. Brendan's Anglican Mission, Maine

On Sunday January 7, 2016, Dr. Wayne Buchanan resigned his position as pastor of Tremont Congregational Church and St. Brendan's Anglican Mission in Tremont, Maine. Wayne Buchanan has also resigned and been removed from his holy orders in the Anglican Church by action of the bishop according to the canons of the church and is no longer a member of the Anglican clergy.

In January, law enforcement contacted Dr. Buchanan regarding a matter unrelated to his ministry as a pastor.

The Rev. Clay Gilley has been appointed as the interim minister at Tremont Church and St. Brendan's Anglican Mission and the church leadership and the diocese have begun a search process for a new full time minister.
