

When Life Falls Apart (The Beginning of the End) | Discussion Questions 1.18.14

How have you experienced God's patience when you've gone away from Him?

What messes have you inherited from others? What have you done with those messes?

What is broken and not God honoring in your life? What will it take for you to trust God enough to fix it?

When has following God been hard or scary? What was that like?

When was a time you trusted God even when it didn't make any earthly sense? What was that like? How did that turn out?

What are you facing now?

What is the God honoring choice? Is it hard? Does it seem impossible? Have you prayed?
