

Out of the Ashes (The Return Home) | Discussion Questions

What, in your life, would you 'do over' if you could?

What tends to take God's place in your life?

Judah found itself in Babylon, where they really didn't want to be. Where have you found yourself that you really didn't want to be?

How have you experienced God calling you when you were far from him?

How have you experienced God providing for you and drawing you home?

What has worn you down in your walk with God?

Where is God in your life?

What do you need to do to 'put first things first'?

What is one change you are going to make to put God first?