

Discussion Questions for April 26

What does a miserable Christian look like? How would you know if you're a miserable Christian?

What do you think would make you happy?

What is the difference between joy and happiness?

Doc said, "God doesn't deal in myth. God doesn't promise you more money, or better health, or a perfect family. God doesn't promise to make your life more trouble-free so you can be happy." Do you believe him? Why or why not?

Where have you experienced God's grace?

What does grace look like for you?

Do you really get grace or are you still trying to work for God's favor?

Do you really trust that God is going to keep his promises?

What struggles are you facing now? Can you see God's grace in them? How or how not?

What will obsessing over grace look like for you?