

“Til Death Do Us Part” Discussion Questions 5.24.15

When was a time you experienced the “feeling” kind of love? How would you describe it?

What is your reaction to hearing the marriage is a covenant with God first and your spouse second?

How can knowing this strengthen your marriage if you are married or if you’re thinking about getting married some day?

We tend to think that feelings lead to actions. What is your reaction to hearing that actions lead to feelings?

What is hard about covenant love for you?

What is one thing you are going to do this week to act more loving towards your spouse?