

When Life Falls Apart (The Kingdom's Fall) | Discussion Questions 1.25.15

When was a time you made a complete mess of your life?

What has it taken to clean it up, or how are you surviving it?

Todd talks about the imposter and the real self. How would you describe your imposter?

How would you describe your real self?

What do you think would happen if you let your real self out at church? At work? At home?

What would it be like to put the imposter aside and live, accepted, as your real self?

What, in your real self, needs to be healed?
