Describe some things that you admire and enjoy the most as well as the things you like the least about the world (culture/society) we live in.

In what ways, if any, do we see society genuinely honoring God? Talk about ways our culture does not honor Him. How easy is it for us to be deceived by what is said compared to what is true.

Read Daniel Chapter 6 together as a group

- 1) Talk about first impressions...what stands out in the text?
- 2) What did you notice in the story for the first time?
- 3) Describe Daniel

Look again @ verse 5...

- 4) Could people say the same thing about you (us)? –at work, - at home, -in the community
- 5) Which areas of your daily example would people find less attractive?

In the movement of Daniel's story and life...go back and list the things that are consistent:

- 6) What character traits in Daniels life do you want to strive for?

Think about who you think is one of the most effective evangelist /minister /servant of the Lord in the New Testament. Why are they at the top of your list and why are they so effective?

Read Psalm 22:21

- 7) How does this apply to Daniels story?
