

January 7

Welcome to Ministry Sunday at CCC! Pastor Jack Leaman will be speaking in our 11am service. This evening at 6pm, we will have a special panel of our ministry leaders talking about their ministries, serving & volunteering!

UP—Songs of Ascent

Tucked away in the ancient Hebrew song-book known as Psalms is a well-worn section called

BRINGING YOUR HOUSE TO GOD'S HOUSE

“Shiray Ham-maloth” - Songs of Ascent. The fifteen songs in this section are the Psalms numbered 120 through 134, and they were sung (most likely in sequence) by pilgrims as they travelled up to the city of Jerusalem for the three great annual worship feasts on the Jewish calendar. Topographically, Jerusalem was the highest city in the country, so no matter where they travelled from, each worshipper and their family had to both literally and spiritually ascend to God's house.

In an age when our own busyness conspires against bringing our house to God's house, never has church attendance been more important. We too are pilgrims traveling upward, and there are some benefits and blessings that we only experience as we ascend in company with other believers. That's precisely why God commands his church to consistently gather together, especially as we see His return approaching (Hebrews 10:25). Don't miss this six-part midweek series starting this Wednesday exploring the critical importance of your church family in your own spiritual journey.

Notes of Thanks

To all my friends at CCC, Greetings from Guatemala! I just want to send this little note to say how much I love and appreciate everyone who has invested in our Children's Home this year. You have made it possible to make a difference in the lives of 17 abused and neglected children. Thank you for helping us “Change the World, One Life at a Time”.

All My Love, Lynne
Your missionary to Guatemala

We, the McCoy and Price families, would like to thank Capital Community Church pastors and members for the kindness shown us throughout Judy's illness and passing. The prayers and words of encouragement sustained us through her illness and those days after Judy's passing from this world to her Heavenly home. Over the last three weeks of life Judy prayed often that God would take her home and the prayers you made to God on our behalf gave Judy and I strength and courage throughout this time. With heartfelt gratitude, we thank you for the prayers, thoughtful words, and flowers.
