

Sanctuary Sunday School Class is Serving Up Love

Sanctuary Sunday School Class has added God's Kitchen lunch ministry to its mission list this year. Volunteers from the class will meet the fourth Monday of each month at the church to prepare the meal and condiments; then travel to the Victory Baptist Church on Main to serve those who come.

The class' first assignment was January 23, with the menu coordinated by Louise Pratt and paid for by the class. Cookies were provided by Brenda Creamer, Molly Sullivan/Bill Bush and Eleanor Warford. Volunteers were Jane Bailey, Pauletta Stovall, Louise Pratt, Trisha Hobbs, David Pratt, Tom Creamer, Clyde Tharp and Duanne Puckett, who also presented a devotional at God's Kitchen.

Photos/Cutlines by Duanne Puckett

Photos clockwise: Pauletta Stovall placed the fried chicken patties onto the buns topped with cheese. Louise Pratt and Jane Bailey prepared the corn and baked beans for the oven. Tom Creamer and Jane Bailey assisted Pauletta with the chicken. Trisha Hobbs and Clyde Tharp discussed church business before leaving for God's Kitchen. David Pratt stacked the condiments to load in his truck.

The Sanctuary Class meets in room 206. Come be a part of our Bible study and ministries.