“His Eye Is on the Sparrow”

Solo by Dianne Moreland

Why should I feel discouraged? Why should the shadows come? Why should my heart be lonely and long for heaven and home, When Jesus is my portion? My constant friend is he: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me; his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me. I sing because I’m happy, (I’m happy,) I sing because I’m free, (I’m free,) for his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.

“Let not your heart be troubled,” his tender word I hear, and resting on his goodness, I lose my doubts and fears; though by the path he leadeth but one step I may see: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me; his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me. I sing because I’m happy, (I’m happy,) I sing because I’m free, (I’m free,) for his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.

Whenever I am tempted, whenever clouds arise, when song gives place to sighing, when hope within me dies, I draw the closer to him, from care he sets me free: His eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me; his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me. I sing because I’m happy, (I’m happy,) I sing because I’m free, (I’m free,) for his eye is on the sparrow, and I know he watches me.

Closing Hymn

“As the last hymn ends, please reach out, across the aisle, and join hands with your neighbor. Please keep holding hands through the benediction”

Benediction

Choral Benediction Response

The congregation is invited to sing with us. Hymnal #431.

“Let There Be Peace on Earth”

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me; let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be. With God our creator, children all are we. Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony. Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now. With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow: to take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally. Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

Postlude
