Quote of the Week

These may be difficult days in which to live, both on the home front and in the world around us, but I believe you and I inhabit them for a reason. We are not part of this historic drama because we are so wise or so strong. In fact, just the reverse: we are here because we have no power. Our hope is not in our strength, but in our trust. Therefore, we embody the option of faith. We offer people a choice. As long as we remain visible and active, unafraid and loving, inclusive and welcoming, we will keep the Spirit option open for all who seek peace and justice. These are difficult days, but they are our days, for they require exactly what we have to give.
—Bp. Steve Charleston, Bishop of Alaska

Car Rally HERE on Saturday, October 20th

Over the summer, the Silicon Valley Motor Club (SVMC) started meeting in our parking lot once a month thanks to parish member Winston Crawford. The club welcomes all enthusiasts, racers, and collectors alike to get together and talk, drive, ride, and race. Winston provides coffee and donuts and the donations go to our church. Above is a picture from last Saturday's rally. The next one is scheduled for Saturday, October 20 8:00 am—10:30 am. Come check it out!
