Quote of the Week

Somewhere, in this day, there is a blessing waiting for you. I think it was placed there by the more mischievous angels, but maybe that is only in my imagination. The blessing, however, is real. It is a small moment of grace, a restoration of your faith in humanity, a sign of healing in your life, waiting somewhere in the hours ahead, waiting to appear before you like a field of wildflowers along a busy highway. The presence of the holy is always there, hiding in plain sight. All we have to do to find it is open our hearts and still our minds. The angels will take care of the rest.

—Bishop Steven Charleston

Come celebrate Val Russom's 100th Birthday

Val Russom is the oldest living member of Christ Church. She will be celebrating her 100th birthday on February 14th. Her family and caregivers are planning a BIG celebration at her home on Saturday, February 16th at 4:00 p.m. They have invited everyone to join her on this memorable day. Please come and celebrate with Val at 1195 Westridge Drive in Portola Valley. Any questions contact Penny McCulloch.

Organ Recital!

Saturday, February 23rd
at 3p.m.

Many talented organists from the Palo Alto chapter of the American Guild of Organists will come together to give a recital on our fabulous Visser-Rowland organ. There's lots of fun music on the lineup, including several works of Bach. Join us to enjoy a wonderful concert and support music at Christ Church!
