Welcome

We are delighted that you have joined us in worship today. It is our desire that, as prayers are raised, hymns and anthems are sung, and God's Word is proclaimed, our worship will bring glory to God and gladness to His people. Indeed, we pray that you will personally be blessed by the corporate worship of the Triune God and return to worship with us next Lord's Day. If you would like to know more about Christ Church, how to become a member, or, most importantly, how to have a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, please talk with an elder standing in the narthex after the service.

Evening Worship

Mirrors are quite intimidating. They tell the truth; they reveal the good, the bad, and the ugly! They do not speak words of condemnation, flattery, judgement or advice. They just show what is there. We may be pleased or shocked or disappointed or depressed by what we see. We are left with deciding how we will respond. Another coat of make-up, a closer shave, a surrender to the fact of blemish, wrinkle, or age. We can address the problem as best we can, ignore it or turn away from the mirror and fabricate our own reality. Whatever our response, the facts remain the same. James uses the mirror as a spiritual measuring stick. What do you see when you look into the mirror of God's truth? Convicting as it may be, James 1:19-27 challenges us to courageously translate words into actions beginning with an accurate assessment of what we see in God's looking glass. Please come this evening to worship and fellowship as we close the Lord's Day.
