

Overview

On Sunday Chris walk through the old testament leading up to Jesus and showed that throughout the Scriptures they were looking forward to this new and better redeemer like Moses. They were also looking forward to this new and better king like David. Unlike Moses and David through, this King and savior wouldn't fail his people.

The ushering in of Jesus' kingdom started with the cross and resurrection and the next phase happened at Pentecost. Where we learn that the Holy Spirit came down on those gather just like the spirit came down on the tabernacle and the temple in the Old Testament.

It might be helpful as a group to read through Acts 2:1-40 before answering the following questions.

1. What is the significance of Jesus being King?
2. What is different about the kingdom of God verses other kingdoms.
3. Chris used the phrase "subversive Christianity" to describe the culture of the early church. They resided in Rome but ceased was not their ultimate king. How do we live that same mindset today?
4. The church is a movement not a building. How does understand that mindset change your behaviors?

5. What does it mean to be kingdom minded?
