Bobby Jackson Bio

Bobby Jackson graduated from Clemson University in 1970 with a BS degree. He also graduated from the Medical University of South Carolina, College of Pharmacy in 1978.

Bobby and his wife, Kathy were married on December 16, 1978. He graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary with a Masters of Divinity in 1989. Their family moved to Irmo, South Carolina in 1989 and have been actively involved at Riverland Hills Baptist Church since that time.

Bobby worked for 21 years with the South Carolina Baptist Convention in Men's Ministry and personal evangelism. After that he did contract work with the convention for an additional three years. He served as an interim pastor at Bush River Baptist Church in Newberry and Hermitage Baptist Church in Camden, SC. Currently he is an associate pastor at Ridge Spring Baptist Church.

Bobby has enjoyed hunting and fishing practically all his life and loves duck hunting in Arkansas and bass fishing on Santee Cooper and Lake Murray.

The Jacksons have three adult children, two of which are married and they have five beautiful grandchildren.
