FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What are Life Groups?

Life Groups provide an opportunity for people to connect to Christ and community.

2. How can I become a part of a Life Group?

Life Groups run by spring and fall semesters. The spring semester begins the week following Super Bowl Sunday and the fall semester begins the week following Labor Day. People are encouraged to join a Life Group at the beginning of each semester. Those desiring to become a part of a pre-existing group may contact the Life Group leader. Most Life Groups have a numerical cap to maintain the effectiveness and intimacy of the group. It is best to contact the Life Group leader as early in the semester as possible to ensure a place.

3. What is the commitment to being a part of a Life Group?

Life Group semesters run 10-12 weeks. Since we are “doing life together,” we ask that you attend group meetings as much as your schedule allows. The more meetings you attend, the more community you are likely to experience. We discourage people from “shopping” Life Groups beyond the first three weeks of a semester. Community is often built once people make a decision to commit and contribute.

4. When and where do Life Groups meet?

Life Group leaders choose the night and the location which their Life Group will meet. Groups are asked to meet off-site from the Christian Life campus if possible. Designated nights and times are set for Life Groups meeting on the Christian Life campus. Childcare and security will be provided for groups meeting at Christian Life.

5. How long do Life Group meetings last?

Life Groups typically meet for 2 hours, unless the Life Group is doing an outside social activity or service project.

6. What are the components of a typical Life Group meeting?

We encourage Life Groups to focus on things that cannot typically be done during corporate worship services. Groups are designed to be discussion based. Thus, we encourage groups to have the following four components:

- Refreshments
- Sharing: share victories and testimonies/icebreaker questions
- Discussion/study: cover curriculum
- Prayer
