NEW TESTAMENT

THE GOSPELS— the New Testament books Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John— tell the story of Jesus' coming to Earth. In the New Testament, we learn that the Holy Spirit continued to work as He did in the Old Testament until Jesus returned to heaven. He filled certain people for special work, for prophecy, and to lead people.

Before Jesus' birth, an angel announced the coming birth of John the Baptist to his father, Zechariah. The angel said John would be filled with the Holy Spirit from the time he was born. His job would be to announce the coming of the Messiah. (Luke 1:8-17)

An angel also announced the birth of Jesus. He told Mary she would have a son by the power of the Holy Spirit. (Luke 1:26-38)

After Jesus was born, His parents took Him to the temple to dedicate Him to the Lord. Two people, lead by the Holy Spirit, welcomed Him. The Holy Spirit had told Simeon he would see the Messiah before he died. He prophesied over Jesus. Anna was also a prophetess. She saw Baby Jesus and spoke about Him to everyone who looked for the Messiah. (Luke 2:25-38)

Throughout Jesus' life, He was filled with the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit led Jesus. (Matthew 3:13 to 4:1)

At Pentecost, the Holy Spirit worked in a new way. All believers could now be baptized in the Holy Spirit. The Baptism gave them the power to witness and to minister to the other believers in the church. Through the Holy Spirit's power, believers grew to be more like Jesus. (Acts 1:8; 2:1-47; Galatians 5:22-25)

The Holy Spirit guided the work of the Early Church. He gave special assignments to certain people. He had a special job for Barnabas and Paul. (Acts 13:2-4)

The Holy Spirit continues this work in our lives today!

HOPE TO SEE YOU THIS SUMMER!

PROJECT BACKPACK

In many parts of Honduras, children are not allowed to attend school unless they can afford to buy school supplies. With over 66% of Hondurans living below the poverty level, many children are unable to attend school. That is why Kidzlife is teaming up with BGMC until the end of this summer for Project Backpack. For just $10, you can provide a backpack and school supplies for a child in need.

Together, we can

MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU?

Any cool stories about Bible time with your kiddos? Are there any additional tools we can offer? We would love to hear from you! Please email us at
