

Wednesday Prayer Priority

April 13, 2016

Charisma Editor Jennifer LeClaire says this is her prayer in times of pressure:

“I say ‘yes’ to You, Holy Spirit. I say ‘yes’ to Your will and Your ways, even when I don’t understand Your work in my life. I ask you to enlarge my spiritual capacity, to enlarge my heart to love You more, and to help me surrender all that is getting in the way.”

I love it when God’s people pray ‘dangerous’ prayers like that. Such prayers are risky, at least to our flesh. But they are powerfully effective too. Would you be willing to join me in three prayers of release? These prayers are both risky and powerful because in them we are (1) willing to abandon our own agendas and (2) to embrace the will of God—even before we know what His plan may look like.

Father, we ask you to do three things in the remaining months of 2016:

- 1. Father, please put the right person in the White House. I accept your will regardless of who that may be. Your choice is now my choice. I don’t need to understand Your wisdom or Your plan — I simply ask you to take control. Give us what we need; not necessarily what we want. I surrender my political agenda to You.
- 2. Father, please turn the heart of America to Yourself. We may or may not need new laws — but we certainly need new hearts. Turn us to a Biblical World-View, in Jesus’ Name.
- 3. Father, please revive Your Church by helping us to see Your Scriptural Truth and to act upon it. You promised that The Truth has the power to set us free. Bring us Home to You, Lord.

We ask for divine intervention that will result in 2016 being the year that witnesses the beginning of a new Great Awakening, in Jesus’ Name!
