

*Introducing our new Senior Pastor,
Rev. Jane Eesley*

Welcome, Pastor Jane Eesley

Jane was educated at Northwestern University where she received a B.A. in English literature in 1984; and a M.S. in English in 1990. She graduated from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity Degree in 1996. She was ordained a deacon in 1996 and ordained an elder in 1998.

Jane has been active in missionary service through the United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries. She served with the Mission Intern program from 1990—1993. She spent a year and a half working in Arab East Jerusalem, working in a well-baby clinic, and another year and a half in Staten Island, New York, working with the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

Prior to coming to CUMC, Jane has served three churches: Chicago: Mayfair (July, 1996-November, 1997); Naperville Community UMC as Associate Pastor (December, 1997-mid-October, 2005) and DeKalb First UMC, as senior pastor (mid-October, 2005—present).

We look forward to welcoming Pastor Jane as she joins us on July 1, 2011.
