We live on an acre, outside the city limits, in a small town with our two children. The school district that we are part of is very desirable to families in our area. The community around us is centered around agriculture, including many family farms and businesses. We have fully embraced our surroundings and expose our children to everything that agriculture has to offer – animals, crops, county fairs, tractors, etc. It is a true passion and we support the local FFA chapters as much as possible. Our community is safe, inviting, and works together to provide a great place to live.

Jeremy is employed as a Commercial and Ag Fuel Representative for a local petroleum company. He is fortunate to have the flexibility in his job to be involved with our children's sports and 4-H and FFA activities. He is a member of the local FFA's booster committee and helps organize their fundraising events. He finds joy in helping our children in their extracurricular activities and helping our extended family with various projects or just when they need a helping hand.

Cortney is employed as a Vice President, Assistant Branch Manager for a local Ag bank. She has been raised in agriculture her entire life and pursued that interest throughout college and her career. Helping farmers prosper is one of her passions. Another passion is family. Cortney was raised in a tight-knit family that is still that way today, and she is raising her children with this same value. Spending holidays and weekends with family is important to her.

We have many common interests, but the most important one for both of us is having a strong family unit. We were blessed to adopt our son Liam. He has brought us even closer together as a family and we are grateful for him each day. We strive to teach our children to be good people and to be accepting and kind to everyone. If you choose to allow us to raise your child, we will do all we can to bring them up in a loving, nurturing, tight-knit family.
