A NOTE FROM FATHER ANDREW

Dear Parish Family:

Happy Feast Day! What a great honor to have our community named after the greatest sacrament in the church the Eucharist. Today we can rejoice and reflect on the many ways that God brings new life to us through the sharing of the one bread and one cup. How blessed we are because God has given us this great gift. This is where our community finds its strength and where we are challenged to become what we eat. Think about what that means for us when we worship together, pray for each other, welcome one another and minister to one another. It all leads us to recognize the presence of Christ in our midst and to respond to the call to Follow Him, Love All, Grow Disciples.

Please think about helping out with Vacation Bible School. This is one of the many great programs we provide for our children. So many parents want to enroll their children because of the way the program is presented. Our thanks to Jessica Garrett and Donna Remaley for their leadership and dedication and to all the volunteers that make this program so meaningful for our children. Your help would be greatly appreciated, the forms for volunteer sign up are in the café as well as our website.

Just a reminder that the set up and sign up for the Pine Barrens Festival is underway. If you can help Wednesday nights or Saturday mornings it would greatly be appreciated. We especially need your help in the area of SETTING UP. A very special THANK YOU to the women who are involved in the mailing ministry. This year again over 7000 pieces of mail went out to parishioners and members of the larger community announcing the festival 2017. Each year these dedicated volunteers have been a important part of our successful festival. Thank you to one and all.

"The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'" From the beginning, the Eucharist has been a source of controversy. Some people have always found the teaching difficult to accept. But as Catholics, the Blessed Sacrament is at the heart of our worship and our spirituality; we go to Mass to share in the holy sacrifice of Jesus' body and blood, and we receive spiritual nourishment from partaking of this heavenly food. As Jesus himself tells us in today's Gospel, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." From this passage it is clear that Jesus intended the Eucharist to be a tremendous gift for us, for "whoever eats this bread will live forever." This of course is because the bread is Christ's "flesh for the life of the world." In other words, just as he gave his body on the cross to save us from our sins, so too this same flesh is given for us at every Mass to strengthen our weakness and unite us more deeply to our Savior. Receiving Communion isn't like taking a magic pill, however. We must beware of reducing this sacrament to an empty ritual or a foolproof guarantee of heaven. No, it is quite possible to receive Communion unworthily and reject its spiritual efficacy. Just like the benefits of a healthy meal can be undone by a habit of binging on junk food, so too we can prevent holy Communion from having its full benefits when we crowd our souls with vices and sins. If, on the other hand, we wish to let this sacrament of divine grace flourish, we should receive it with a sincere spirit of gratitude and reverence, praying that we may be made worthy to receive such a gift.

Happy Father's Day! See you on the weekend. Have a wonderful week!

Fr. Andrew

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!
