Child safety policy, signs of maltreatment and other resources

“Then little children were being brought to him in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples spoke sternly to those who brought them; but Jesus said, ‘Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.’ And he laid his hands on them and went on his way.”

1. Children's Ministry at Church Radiant

Statement of Purpose:

Church Radiant is concerned with and dedicated to the safety, health, and well-being of the children and youth entrusted to our care. We do this to encourage children, youth and their families to grow in their relationship with God and one another. An environment of healing and hope includes a formal, written policy to help protect children and youth from emotional, physical, or sexual abuse. The following policy and procedures are for the protection of our children, youth, employees, volunteers and our entire church family. The child safety policy is also in place to protect our church and our workers from false allegations.

Mission:

Children's ministry at Church Radiant exists to love, welcome, and serve children and youth from all walks of life, so they can discover and experience the abundant love that Jesus Christ has for them.

Church Radiant is not here to judge or condemn children and youth, but to offer biblical Truth with love and humility.

Children's ministry at Church Radiant is a place of hope and of transformation. We desire to carry one another's burdens, to help our parents in raising Godly children and youth, share in one another's joys, and walk alongside one another in our life journeys.

You, your children, and your youth belong here!

Vision:

Our children and youth will encounter God
Our children and youth will experience life-change
Our children and youth will embrace community

2. Biblical and Theological Foundations for Child Protection--Amy Lynn Smith

The role of children in the life of Israel and the Christian church is scattered throughout the entire canon of our scriptures. The calling of Abraham and Sarah to be the parents of a people of blessing included the promise of a son as one key point in this process (Genesis 17:1-14). Covenant keeping was for the lifespan and parents were instructed to teach their children to keep the decrees and commandments of God (Deuteronomy 6:1-9). The great sin of idolatry described across the prophets dealt deathly consequences upon children and others without resources with which to protect themselves, and this was unacceptable in the sight of God (Isaiah 58, Jeremiah 7:5-7, Micah 6:8). In the life of Jesus, children are examples for adults and for the disciples of the key to true greatness (Matthew 18:1-5, Luke 9:46-48). Jesus also demonstrates his desire for their presence and involvement, physically being present with them and once again teaching through their witness (Matthew 19:13-15). The first Christian sermon preached by Peter at Pentecost proclaimed that the words of the prophet Joel had come to pass that “your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men see visions” (Acts 2:17, see 2:14-36). Finally, Paul reminds Timothy to not let anyone look down on him because of his youthfulness, but to live as an example for the believers he is leading (1 Timothy 4:6-16).

Children and youth are to be protected from the sinful and idolatrous behavior of adults or those with greater power over them because this is a matter at the heart of God. Child abuse as a pattern of behavior and relationship is sinful. Violence thrust upon adults was not accepted and neither was it acceptable when thrust upon the weaker. Throughout the Old and New Testaments, children are an important part of the community, requiring the instruction of the people of God as well as holding the capacity to teach even those closest to Jesus. To value and protect children and the vulnerable in our care is to live into our familial and communal identity as the children and people of God.

3. Church Radiant Safe Environment Policy

Introduction

We commit ourselves to treasuring our children and youth as precious members of God's family. We acknowledge our responsibility to protect them, to create safe environments in church activities, and to respond if they are being hurt.

Definitions

For the purpose of this policy, the terms "child," "children," or "youth" will refer to any individual under the age of 18 and these terms will be used interchangeably.

Approved adults refers to individuals who have completed background checks and child abuse screening, attended child safety training and been deemed appropriate to work with Church Radiant's children.

Physical abuse: when a child has a non-accidental injury

Emotional abuse: when a parent always blames or rejects the child

Sexual abuse: when an adult uses a child as a part of any sexual act

Emotional neglect: when a child is not given the chance to feel loved, wanted, and secure

Physical neglect: when a child is not given their basic needs

(Legal definitions of child maltreatment can be found in NY Social Services Law § 371 and Family Court Act § 1012)

Abuse prevention within our church community:

1. Maintain a safe church facility

- a. Classes will be held in the designated rooms with two unrelated* approved adults present (team approach). *This shall be implemented within 4 months, by December 31, 2015
- b. If two approved adults are not available, the children should be returned to their parents and parents advised of reason.

- c. Any activity for children or youth conducted inside or outside of the church schedule will have at least two unrelated adults providing supervision.
- d. Youth under eighteen providing childcare must have an approved adult present for supervision.
- e. Parents must be notified and give consent for their child to be transported away from church activities.
- f. Physical discipline will not be used. If a child misbehaves, adults will redirect or use verbal guidance. The child will be taken to his or her parent for any further action.
- g. Nursery door will remain open with baby gate in place while infants in room.
- h. Top half of toddler room door will remain open while children are in room.

2. Team approach to supervising activity--A very effective safeguard for maintaining child safety is supervision of any activity involving youth or children by at least two approved adults.

- a. The nursery and tots should be staffed by two approved adults at all times.
- b. At any activities in the church house or facility external to the main church building, two approved adults are required to be present. This includes youth groups and activities held off grounds or at other locations.
- c. For transportation to and from church-sponsored activities in a location away from the church grounds, in a vehicle with only one adult, there must be at least two youth.

Exceptions and clarifications are noted below:

- d. Church functions (e.g. Children's Church, Bible study, etc.) where classes are meeting in the main church building, a single teacher may lead the class, provided that the group is meeting in the café and provided that multiple activities are in progress inside the church building.
- e. Parents/Guardians of youth/children going on special activities, including but not limited to special trips and overnight activities, will be required to fill out permission form.
- f. Under exceptional circumstances, in the event that there is no available transportation home, a volunteer can provide transportation for the youth. The volunteer will call a parent/guardian and a member of the Child Safety Team prior to leaving the church and upon arrival at the youth's home, noting the departure and arrival times, in order to provide accountability.

3. Personnel issues: Any person interested in leading/working/volunteering in a ministry with children or youth

- a. Shall be in the church six (6) months prior.
- b. Must affirm that they have no history of perpetrating child abuse.

The training provided shall exceed the minimum requirements of what is mandated for insurance purposes and include information on identifying and preventing all forms of abuse.
Clearances are not required for youth under 18. Youth ages 14 through 18 will be required to fill out an application and participate in an interview. A parent or guardian may be present during the interview.
- g. Sign a copy and agree to abide by child safety policy.

- b. All signed forms, documentation of interviews, and all other such confidential material will be kept in a securely locked area.
- c. All files approved or denied are to be kept on file for 7 years.

5. Deal appropriately with allegations of abuse

Be aware that sexual relationships with minors can lead to a criminal conviction and imprisonment.

- (2) "Private employer" means any person, company, corporation, labor organization or association which employs ten or more persons.

§ 751. Applicability. The provisions of this article shall apply to any application by any person for a license or employment at any public or private employer, who has previously been convicted of one or more criminal offenses in this state or in any other jurisdiction, and to any license or employment held by any person whose conviction of one or more criminal offenses in this state or in any other jurisdiction preceded such employment or granting of a license, except where a mandatory forfeiture, disability or bar to employment is imposed by law, and has not been removed by an executive pardon, certificate of relief from disabilities or certificate of good conduct. Nothing in this article shall be construed to affect any right an employer may have with respect to an intentional misrepresentation in connection with an application for employment made by a prospective employee or previously made by a current employee.

§ 752. Unfair discrimination against persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses prohibited. No application for any license or employment, and no employment or license held by an individual, to which the provisions of this article are applicable, shall be denied or acted upon adversely by reason of the individual's having been previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses, or by reason of a finding of lack of "good moral character" when such finding is based upon the fact that the individual has previously been convicted of one or more criminal offenses, unless:

(1) there is a direct relationship between one or more of the previous criminal offenses and the specific license or employment sought or held by the individual; or

(2) the issuance or continuation of the license or the granting or continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

§ 753. Factors to be considered concerning a previous criminal conviction; presumption. 1. In making a determination pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-two of this chapter, the public agency or private employer shall consider the following factors:

(a) The public policy of this state, as expressed in this act, to encourage the licensure and employment of persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses.

(b) The specific duties and responsibilities necessarily related to the license or employment sought or held by the person.

(c) The bearing, if any, the criminal offense or offenses for which the person was previously convicted will have on his fitness or ability to perform one or more such duties or responsibilities.

(d) The time which has elapsed since the occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses.

(e) The age of the person at the time of occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses.

(f) The seriousness of the offense or offenses.

(g) Any information produced by the person, or produced on his behalf, in regard to his rehabilitation and good conduct.

(h) The legitimate interest of the public agency or private employer in protecting property, and the safety and welfare of specific individuals or the general public.

2. In making a determination pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-two of this chapter, the public agency or private employer shall also give consideration to a certificate of relief from disabilities or a certificate of good conduct issued to the applicant, which certificate shall create a presumption of rehabilitation in regard to the offense or offenses specified therein.

§ 754. Written statement upon denial of license or employment. At the request of any person previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses who has been denied a license or employment, a public agency or private employer shall provide, within thirty days of a request, a written statement setting forth the reasons for such denial.

This link will take you to the penal code regarding sex offenses, where information about sex offenses against minors can be found. For the purpose of our policy and training, we define sexual abuse as “when an adult uses a child as a part of any sexual act.” This includes but is not limited to inappropriate touching and fondling under the guise of affection, the placing of children on laps for sexual gratification, sexual or sexualized conversations or media exposure of children. If an action or conversation is questionable, do not engage in that conversation and speak with the pastoral staff or the children’s director.
