Mrs. Hughes' Weekly Kindergarten Newsletter – Clear Creek Christian School

Week 28: March 5-9, 2018

Our Week at a Glance

- Bible Jesus was quite a storyteller! This week we'll learn from his Parable of the Sower.
- Phonics We're learning the special sounds /ch/ in "church," /or/ in "morning," /ou/ in "out," and /ow/ in "owl."
- Math We're finishing our money counting unit. Have some spare change in your pocket? Help your child count it!

This Week's Memory Verse:

Do not merely listen to the word,
and so deceive yourselves.

Do what it says.

James 1:22

JUST DO IT.

There will be no school over Spring Break.

Please don't come to school Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, or Sunday. What will Mrs. Hughes do without her Kindergartners for all those days?

Our 3rd grading period ends this Friday, 3/9!
Report cards will be available the Friday after Spring Break. All work needs to be completed by this Friday so that I can calculate grades. If your child will be leaving early for Spring Break this week, please let me know so that I can plan accordingly.

Thank you!

Our Reading Olympics Awards Chapel begins at 10:45 this Friday, March 9!

Monday Night Reading Homework

Reading books went home in MOOSE Books today, as usual. I hope you enjoy listening to your Kindergarten reader as much as I do. I'm amazed by how well all the kids are reading!

The last few weeks I've noticed an increase in the number of reading books that have been returned without an adult's signature on the back of the book. I told the kids that from now on, if an adult hasn't signed the chart beside the assigned homework pages, I will not give a popsicle stick, even if they have read the assignment. I gave the students the responsibility of making sure their books are signed.

Be warned . . . they might be a little intense about acquiring your signature!

Old Mother Hu(ghe)sbbard
Went to her cupboard
To get her students a snack.

But when she got there
The cupboard was (almost) bare,
For only four students brought snacks!

(Hint, hint!)

Even though it's starting to feel a little more spring-like outside, morning recesses have still been quite chilly. As you're packing up your child's belongings for the day, please make sure you include enough gear to keep the youngster warm at recess!
