BUILD #25

Your habitat newsletter correspondent has now had the pleasure of meeting and visiting with our new Habitat for Humanity owner family. The Mitchell family is from Knoxville, TN. Ms. Mitchell works in the day school here at CHPC, a position she has had now for four and a half years. She is currently in the midst of a semester off in her course of study of education at Northeast State.

In the time allowed from a busy schedule of work and study, the Mitchell family enjoys walking in the park and watching TV together.

Ms. Mitchell says she feels that, having worked here for several years, she is especially happy that it is our church that is building her new home.
