Revelation 1:1-3

Leader's Guide: Do not feel like you need to use all these questions for your CG discussion. Pick and choose what you think would be best for your group. After listening to the sermon, you may have your own points for discussion.

1. Share with your group how you have looked at the book of Revelation in the past. Are you one that tends to avoid the book? Or are you one that has embraced it? Do you tend to focus on the details of Revelation, or the big picture? There can be a lot of past 'baggage' around studying Revelation!! Be honest with each other about your 'baggage'!
2. Rev 1:3 tells us that those who read, hear, and obey the Book of Revelation will be blessed. How often do you read Revelation? Do you think you will increase your blessing if you read it more often? Will understanding that promised blessing motivate you to read Revelation more often?
3. What pieces of the puzzle about future things did Todd put in place for you in this sermon? How does this change your understanding (and excitement!) about the future?
4. Share with each other one or two major thoughts about how your perspective on Revelation has changed.
5. Talk about the personal impact of the 'Victory of Jesus' theme in Revelation. How are you encouraged about the reality of victory in your life? Share with one another an area where you would like to see victory. Pray through these as a group.
