

Carl and Lisa Peck, MA

Carl and Lisa are both counselors and have their own counseling and consulting ministry in Huntsville, Alabama. In addition to private practice, they conduct seminars and workshops around the country on singles and marriage/family-related issues, as well as serving relational ministries within their own church. Carl has also served with Intimate Life Ministries' Center for Relational Leadership as a business consultant. Carl and Lisa combine twenty-nine years of ministry experience from a variety of settings including local churches, Promise Keepers, and Focus on the Family. They are accredited trainers for Intimate Life Ministries. They are both graduates of Denver Seminary and have been married ten years.
