CONGREGATIONAL MEETING 3
PST UPDATE/SESSION CORNER 3
CHURCH FAMILY NIGHT 7
MY TESTIMONY 9
On my recent second visit to Ethiopia I went to some places where I’d been before and some I had not been. The photo of Melaku and me was taken in a place where neither of us had ever been called Chacha. Yes, Chacha! (No, we didn’t see anybody dancing!) Chacha is located about an hour’s drive north of Addis Ababa. Our interest in Chacha was that it is one of the locations where Project Mercy is serving the poor in the name of Christ. Project Mercy is a wonderful Christian ministry that George Carey, former Director of EPC’s World Outreach, is now serving with.

Project Mercy has operations in a couple of different places in Ethiopia. In Chacha they have a very interesting dairy cow breeding ministry. Basically, they’ve successfully cross-bred a Jersey cow with a breed of cow that is indigenous to Ethiopia, and have come up with an animal that is treasured by the people of Chacha. These cattle are healthy, grass-fed creatures that produce an abundant daily supply of milk.

A family with such a cow not only has enough milk for themselves, but enough left over to sell in the marketplace. And Project Mercy’s goal with this project is to place as many such healthy cows in the hands of needy families as possible. On the day Melaku and I visited they were having a special celebration because eight cows were being given away that day to families. In fact, I had the privilege of giving away the first of the eight cows. A total of 22 cows have been given away since they began their operations in Chacha. And get this—they don’t accept a dime for the cows.

Now, any good-hearted soul can give food (or livestock) to the hungry. But is there anything overtly Christian about what they are doing? Absolutely. Melaku and I were encouraged to see that churches are springing up in the places where Project Mercy is doing their work. At another location (not Chacha) where Project Mercy is working, in the past 20 years three churches have been planted and there are more than 500 believers. We both had the privilege of preaching in one of those churches. Project Mercy is funded as a relief organization, and because their work schools are established, gardens are planted, dairy cows are bred, hospitals are built and orphans are taken in. Most importantly, God’s love is making a difference and the Gospel is taking root.

The lesson is transferable. Some people are not able to hear the Gospel with their ears; they must see it with their eyes. And when the Gospel is the demonstration of God’s love, seeing is believing.

Blessings,

Pastor Dave Fenska
Interim Senior Pastor

Pastoral Search Team Update 13

At last!! The Pastoral Search Team is happy to announce that we have narrowed down the applicants for Senior Pastor to one viable CANDIDATE. If you were in church on Sunday, January 11, 2015, you may have heard the chairman of the PST, Elder Everett Geis, announce during the congregational meeting that we had chosen a candidate. That candidate was approved by an unanimous vote of the PST. We took the next step at a special Session meeting held on January 22 where the we were questioned about the candidate so that the Session gained more knowledge of the Candidate’s background and skills.

On January 29 and 30, the Candidate and his wife were present before the Session and the PST for an in-person questioning and then Session voted unanimously a vote was taken to have him return to preach a sermon before the entire congregation. On that Sunday, the congregation will vote to approve or reject the Candidate.

Once again, we apologize that we cannot reveal our candidates name, church's name or geographical location yet. He has not announced to his present church his candidacy to become our Shepherd and we are honoring that element of privacy. We also want to thank all of you for your patience and most of all for your prayers to guide us to the right one to lead our wonderful church forward. Please continue those prayers through the final steps.

Elder Larry Kurtz,
PST Courier Liaison

In Loving Memory:

Thanks & Praise:

Dear Covenant Family,

Thank you so much for all the many lovely cards and for all of your faithful prayers and well wishes. It’s such comfort knowing that I have your support. God has truly blessed me with friends from Covenant.

I appreciate all the volunteer receptionists and especially Cheryl Sidfrid for “holding down the fort” in her very efficient manner; and for Lynelle Boyle for being a great friend in my time of need.

God has been so faithful to hear and answer your prayers and my needs and I am truly blessed.

Lovingly,
Betty Shattuck

Dear CPC family, John Beauman, Bobby Ash and committee, Church Administrators, and all who helped,

On behalf of the Oakland family, CPC missionaries, Larry and Kathy Dunne, Karen Klunder, and Tom Oakland,

We wish to extend our heart-felt appreciation for your generous contributions towards Mike’s Memorial service. We could not have been more pleased and grateful for that day. We all have wonderful memories to cherish thanks to your work.

Beverly Oakland

How can we Thank you enough for your reoccurring Christmas donation! This time of year brings added expenses, and it’s as if you come to the rescue each year!

We send our Most Sincere gratitude and love for your unending thoughtfulness. We always appreciate your faithful support of our family and Ireland ministry.

Serving together ..

With Love,
Larry, Kathy Dunne and family

The CCS Hot Lunch program not only gives kids the opportunity to have a yummy pizza lunch on Wednesdays, but it also gives them the chance to experience wonderful opportunities as well. Stacy Germain, Preschool Director, arranged to have actual snow brought to CCS for the Preschool kids to experience and play in and “Let It Go!”

One parent said, “I would like to take this opportunity to express my greatest gratitude towards you and everyone that is part of the Covenant Family for helping my son feel welcomed and learn about God to straighten his faith and also for helping him socialize and come out of his shell. He has become more independent, he started to write his name and is eager to go to school and play with his friends every day, he looks forward for hot lunch and all activities you have... for the first time he touched snow at Covenant and had a blast! I believe your school does a great job in empowering kids and helping them become better people academically and spiritually.”

a FROZEN day to remember!!

GROUP UPDATES

Have you ever been hungry? Do you just go to the refrigerator and get a snack to eat? Well, did you know there are many people right here in Orange County that are very hungry and don’t have food to put in their refrigerator, if they even have one. And many of these people are children! Second Harvest Food Bank is doing its best to help with this problem and our speaker, Kelly King, from Second Harvest Food Bank, will open your eyes to their compassion.

The primary work of Second Harvest Food Bank is acquiring and distributing donated and surplus food. Food sources include local grocery stores and supermarket chains, food manufacturers and distributors, the government, restaurants, trade shows, gleaning efforts, bulk food purchases, food drives, and private individuals.

Second Harvest Food Bank serves more than 340 community partners that feed the hungry at more than 480 locations in Orange County, including church pantries, shelters, senior centers, children’s after school centers, rehabilitation centers and other emergency assistance organizations. In partnership with member charities, they help feed more than 200,000 individuals each month.

The Great Recession has had a lasting impact on Orange County’s working poor that continues. It is reported there is a 42% increase in demand for food assistance since 2008. The majority of people at risk of going hungry each month are children and single parents, seniors, or those confronted by financial difficulty or who are physically unable to earn a living. Many seniors coping with high housing costs and rising medical costs simply can’t afford nutritious food.

Kelly has been working at Second Harvest Food Bank for seven years and has been overseeing all of the community partners offering food services. She was born and raised in Fullerton and attended Cal State Fullerton for her undergraduate degree and University of Chicago for her MBA. She has always had a heart for the less fortunate and has been working in various non-profits for the past twelve years. Kelly is the granddaughter of Covenant member Elaine Fitzwater.

The Country Store will be open for you to browse through the books while visiting with your friends. The store also has pretty napkins, lovely jewelry and greeting cards for all occasions.

SIGN-UP: Sundays, Feb. 8 and 15, ($5).

Childcare will be provided by request. Please bring a sack lunch for child.

We are very pleased to have as our speaker, Bill Burke. Bill has climbed the highest mountains on every continent. He is the only person to achieve this after age 60. On May 23, 2009, Bill summited Mt. Everest from the South (Nepal). In reaching the summit at age 67 he became the oldest American to climb the highest mountain in the world. On May 25, 2014, Bill summited Mt. Everest from the North (Tibet) side, thus breaking his own record and becoming the oldest person outside of Asia to summit Mt. Everest. On May 21, 2014 the Government of Nepal named a 6,945 meter peak in the Himalayan mountain range after Bill.

Bill will discuss his north side climb of Mt. Everest and will present dramatic photos and video of the climb.

Bill is a former member and Elder of Covenant Presbyterian Church. He practiced law for over 45 years in Los Angeles, Newport Beach, Hong Kong, Tokyo, and New York. He retired in 2003. Bill is 72 and has been married 52 years. They have four children and 14 grandchildren.

Reservations are required for lunch. You can make reservations by signing up at the His Men’s Fellowship table, or by calling the church office and making a reservation.

All those who are interested are welcome to attend.

SIGN-UP by Feb. 10 ($5).
To our Covenant congregation, it is with immense gratitude that we give you thanks for your generous, loving, and joyful giving through your financial contributions for our Adopt-a-Family Christmas program. We are pleased to share the news that we were able to help seven families this past Christmas with food, gifts, Christmas trees, and especially the love of Christ (picture of children assisted below). Some families go without Christmas because of financial circumstances that have impacted their lives, and others simply can’t afford the cost associated with the holiday season. Some of our adopted families, by God’s good grace, are self-sufficient throughout the year, however, at Christmas, it becomes a luxury to have the “gifts” to share with others, including a family dinner. It is with gratitude and humility that we give thanks to our Great Provider for all that he allows us to have and all that he directs us to share with others in our local community. We were only able to adopt the families because of your generosity, and we are grateful beyond words for your love and support.

Our praise and gratitude would not be complete without giving thanks to the Lord for allowing us to be givers, to bless others, to witness to others, and to demonstrate to others, the love that He gave us. Many come not knowing what to expect, or how to understand the Lord’s will. Thanks and glory be to God for giving us the characteristics of Jesus to show others what it is to be loved unconditionally. Amen and Amen.

The Community Outreach Team,
Lisa Ygual and Julie McCully

My Testimony -

David B. Gish

I was raised and brought up in the Brethren in Christ church. The Brethren in Christ is a very conservative church and is a spin off from the Amish and in many ways followed the Amish traditions. One of the big differences was the Amish had their church services in their homes and the Brethren in Christ meet in a church building. One of the traditions was a twice a year revival meeting that normally lasted two weeks. The motive for these meetings was to have people accept Christ as their Savior. After a hellfire and brimstone message, we would sing alter call songs such as, “Just as I am” for people to come forward to the altar and pray to accept Christ as their Savior. It was generally accepted that you had to go forward as the way to become a Christian. As a young person of 12 years old, I went forward to the altar at one of these meetings, but I do not believe this was the time I accepted Christ as my Savior. Being brought up in a strong Christian home, I had committed my life to Christ prior to this.

Another tradition of the Brethren in Christ was baptism by immersion and this was a requirement to become a member of the church. We first had to give a testimony that we had accepted Christ as our personal Savior and our lives were fully committed to him. Baptism was done in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost and we were fully immersed three times. This was a very meaningful experience and an important part of being a Christian.

Being a member of the Brethren in Christ required a complete commitment and following the traditions and rules of the church. For the women, this meant wearing the head covering and for both the men and the women, no jewelry of any kind was allowed. For the men, we were not allowed to wear neckties as they served no useful purpose and were only for show. The adult men all wore beards.

I was never a rebel, but at some point I did begin to question some of the rules and traditions. One of my first rebellion from the rules was wearing a necktie. The first Sunday I put on a necktie my parents would not go to church because it was too embarrassing to be seen with their son wearing a necktie.

While some of the traditions I grew up with may seem hard to understand and not make much sense, I value the foundation that it gave me for a real commitment to living a life following Christ in all aspects of my life.

COURIER SURVEY:

What do you want to see in the Courier?

When you think of the Courier, what kind of information would you like to read about? A “church-life” magazine, a calendar of events and reminders, an outreach tool for visitors, reflections of past events and things to come, testimonies and spiritual journeys… what would you like to see?

Please let us know…we want to make this newsletter as beneficial and personal, both spiritually and logistically, to the congregation and visitors alike.

Write to: COURIER@COVP.ORG
