

Adult Learning Opportunities

February 7—February 28

Bible Study Methods - Many people do not know how to study the Bible effectively so they end up not studying much at all. The Bible is so big and it is hard to know where to start. This class will assist in learning how to study the Bible more effectively giving you the confidence to reference God's word on a consistent, even daily basis.

Facilitated by: Gregg Waycaster

Auditorium Classroom #203

Isaiah: The Watchman of Israel—What Beethoven is in the realm of music, what Shakespeare is in the realm of literature, what Spurgeon was among the Victorian preachers, that is Isaiah among the prophets.

Facilitated by: Ernie Davis

Downstairs Classroom #101

Heaven and Hell—Christians have been redeemed or saved from the consequences of sin and death, namely Hell, and promised the reward of eternal life and peace in Heaven through the grace of the blood of Jesus. But what do we know about these places? We will attempt to separate myth, scripture, hopes, and fears in an effort to prepare ourselves to let go of anything, and perhaps even every thing, of this world which might stand in the way of that redemption.

Facilitated by: Ron Dodson

Blue Room (Downstairs Classroom #104)

From Wilderness to Worship: God's Call to Desperation— God has a history of using time in the Wilderness to test, train, heal and provide for His people. Is there a message today to those of us whose greatest desire seems to be to stay out of the wilderness?

Facilitated by: Lynn Gurganus

Auditorium Classroom #202