

Rich Toward God

A Kingdom Response to the Current Crisis

1923 at the Edgewater Beach Hotel

- Charles Schwab—pres. lgst. steel Co.
- Samuel Insull—pres. lgst. utility Co.
- Howard Hopson—pres. lgst. gas firm
- Arthur Cutten—wheat speculator
- Richard Whitney—pres. NYSE
- Albert Fall—president's Cabinet
- Leon Frazier—pres. BIS
- Jessie Livermore—stk mkt speculator
- Ivar Kreuger—securities distributor

25 years Later

- Charles Schwab—borrowed money
- Samuel Insull—penniless fugitive
- Howard Hopson—gone insane
- Arthur Cutten—died bankrupt
- Richard Whitney—spent time in prison
- Albert Fall—pardoned to die at home
- Leon Frazier—committed suicide
- Jessie Livermore—committed suicide
- Ivar Kreuger—committed suicide

Some Truths About Worldly Wealth

- Provides opportunities and comforts for those blessed with it
- Provides means to touch people's lives (Luke 16:9)
- Those with it have greater responsibility (Luke 16:11-12)
- No one ultimately can protect and keep it

A Kingdom Response for Today

- Reduce expectations of this world
- Rethink the meaning of success
- Raise generosity
- Re-commit to community