

Good morning! Great to see you at church!
You should come to small group Bible study on Monday or Tuesday to dig deeper into what REST in God looks like!

Opening Prayer

Thank God for being present. Ask him to let his truth shine through. Ask him to humble us so we can learn from him.

Getting To Know Each Other

Who knows you best? Spouse? Mom? Dad? Sibling? What's your favorite thing to do with that person?

Points to Ponder

Evaluate this statement: "The better we get to know someone, the easier it is for them to irritate us. God works the exact opposite way."

If God loves us completely after completely knowing us, what holds us back from being completely open with other Christians? Is that ok?

Churches are often accused of being places where "good" people gather to get better. What are some practical ways that we as a congregation can break that stereotype?

What would be some of the benefits of an honest, nothing-to-prove relationship with God? What about with another Christian?

Next Steps

- I will be bold in confession to my fellow Christians this week, knowing that I have nothing to prove.
