What are the ages of participation?

Ages 2-12 may participate.

Are parents able to help their children in the egg hunt patch?

Parents of younger children (ages 2-5) are permitted to help their child in the egg hunt patch.

What kinds of items are in the plastic-filled eggs?

Nut-free candy, small toys, stickers, play jewellery

How does the Egg Hunt work?

We cannot fit all 250 kids into the egg hunt patch at once. So we split the children up into 3 age groups. While one group is hunting, the other two groups will be doing other fun activities. The excitement of the egg hunt lives on from 10:30-11:30am as each child has a chance to experience the "mystery" 4th station during the Easter Celebration Service.

How will we know where to go?

Besides all the volunteers directing traffic, each child will receive a map (appropriate to his/her age group) that will help guide them to all the activity stations. The children will get their map stamped at each station. If they complete all 4 stations, they will not only get to see what is in the huge mystery Easter Egg during the Kids' Message, they will also receive a coupon at the end of the celebration service for a FREE SMALL PIZZA courtesy of Domino's Pizza Meadowvale.

How many eggs will there be?

There will be 2400 eggs total. Each age group will have 800 to find when it is their turn.

What is the egg hunt patch made of?

Our custom-made egg hunt patch is filled with thinly shredded paper to give it a festive grassy look and also make it more challenging for the children to find the eggs.

What are the other activities?

Aside from the Egg Hunt, the children will have a chance to hear the Easter story and make an Easter-related craft.
