

RESOLVED - Battle of the Wills

Introduction

All of us understand what it means and what it feels like to engage in a debate or argument over different opinions or choices that need to be made. The truth is some of the most difficult debates and arguments are between us and God. Will we do His will or just follow our own will or way? It is a common and sometimes very difficult struggle, but undeniable following God's will you NEVER end up in the wrong place.

Discussion Questions

1. Briefly discuss again the difference once again between a "Resolution" and being "Resolved".
2. Talk about Jesus struggle in the garden of Gethsemane. What do you think He was feeling? Did He know before He even ask, what His Father's answer would be? What do you think He was feeling when He hung on the cross and screamed, "My God...why have you forsaken me"?
3. Why do you think we struggle with surrendering to God's will?
4. Can you think of times in your life that you struggled with the will of God? How did that feel? Share a story about a particular struggle.
5. What helps you to surrender to God's will when there is a battle with your will?
