

The God I Wish You Knew - October 25, 2015 - The God that is Focused on YOU

Introduction

Life seems to always be moving at a high rate of speed. I do not know many, if any people who are not always very busy doing life. That and other circumstances can make it very easy to feel like we are just an insignificant number to the creator of the universe, but that is never true. The truth is the God who made us and all we can and cannot see is focused on us personally 24/7. He knows every detail of our lives and cares about every need that we have on any given day.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever been pursued by someone important? Have you ever had an invitation to some special event or to participate in something that you felt privileged to be a part of? What do you think or feel when you are confronted with the reality that the Creator God is focused on you?
2. What are some things that you think can distort or cause someone to have the wrong concept of who God really is? Explain your answer.
3. Can you think of times in your life when you really knew that God was focused on You? Maybe it was a specific answer to prayer, or some incident that you felt His presence.
4. What are your thoughts about Psalm 139:16-17?
5. What are some things that you think you and others can do to help you understand that God is focused on you personally?

Moving Forward

This series is designed to stir our hearts and move us to really get to know the God of the Bible. This subject is vital, because what we believe about God's nature will affect our relationship with Him. There may be many reasons why we believe what we believe about Him but the important matter is that we seek the truth about God. We must by faith replace our misunderstandings of Him with the truth from His Word. It is unfortunate, but many of our concepts of His nature do more to hinder us than to help us from having a close and abiding relationship with our Heavenly Father. We may discover that we have transferred to God some concepts of His nature from some other person in our lives that represented authority or who was supposed to represent God to us.

The God we all want to know is so amazing and wonderful. His love for us is beyond anything that can be measured. He is the God who is focused on YOU. He loves YOU. He cares about YOU. He has plans for YOU. He is in pursuit of YOU right now, so take a step toward HIM and you will discover He will take a step toward YOU, because He is Focused on YOU.
