

So, what's your story?

HOW I met Jesus

Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man's eyes. ⁷ He told him, "Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam" (Siloam means "sent"). So the man went and washed and came back seeing! ⁸ His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?" ⁹ Some said he was, and others said, "No, he just looks like him!" But the beggar kept saying, "Yes, I am the same one!"

- John 9:6-9 (NLT)

My Life SINCE I Met Jesus

So for the second time they called in the man who had been blind and told him, "God should get the glory for this, because we know this man Jesus is a sinner."

- John 9:24 (NLT)

"I don't know whether he is a sinner," the man replied.

"But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!"

- John 9:25 (NLT)

So... What's Your Story?

Every follower of Jesus has a story to tell—a story of how following Jesus changed their life. But too often, we hesitate to share our story. Sometimes we don't think it's good enough, other times we don't know how to tell it. But if we don't share it, we also don't share the hope of how Jesus can change our lives. Join us as we learn to tell our stories together.

My Life BEFORE I Met Jesus

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. ²“Rabbi,” his disciples asked him, “why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents’ sins?” ³“It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. ⁴We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us. The night is coming, and then no one can work. ⁵But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world.”

- John 9:1-5 (NLT)
